

Professional Development Opportunities in Educational Technology and Education For November 17, 2025 to May 31, 2026, Edition #54

Prepared by Clayton R. Wright, crwr77 at gmail .com, November 15, 2025

The 54th edition contains selected professional development opportunities that primarily focus on the use of technology in educational settings and on teaching, learning, and educational administration. Only listings until May 2026 are most complete as dates, locations, or Internet addresses (URLs) were not available for a number of events held after that date. However, 300+ events for June 2026 are listed.

A significant challenge during the assembly of this list is incomplete or conflicting information on websites and the lack of a link between conference websites from one year to the next.

An explanation for the content and format of the list can be found at <http://newsletter.alt.ac.uk/2011/08/why-distribute-documents-in-ms-word-or-openoffice-for-an-international-audience/>. A Word or an OpenOffice format is used to enable people with limited or high-cost Internet access to find a professional development opportunity that is congruent with their interests or obtain abstracts or event proceedings. Consider using the "Find" tool under Microsoft Word's "Edit" tab or similar tab in OpenOffice to locate the name of a particular event, association, city, or country. If you enter the country "Australia" or place, such as "Vancouver" in the "Find" tool, all events that occur in Australia or Vancouver will be highlighted. However, note that there is a Vancouver in Canada and a Vancouver in Washington State, 450 km south of the Canada/USA border. Or, enter the word "artificial intelligence" or "AI". (Note that key words such as "artificial intelligence" or "AI" may not be present in the conference title, yet these topics could be discussed during a particular conference.) Then, "cut and paste" a list of suitable events for your colleagues.

Please note that events, dates, titles, and locations may change and some events may be cancelled. Thus, CHECK the specific event website not only for basic information, but to assure yourself that the event is legitimate. Some events are not quality-focused. I genuinely try to compile a list of events that will give you value for your time and money. But I may not always succeed. Take the time to conduct your own due diligence for any events you want to attend or submit a paper to. You could consider using the checklists at Think Check Attend, <https://thinkcheckattend.org/> which "aims to guide and assist researchers and scholars to judge the legitimacy and academic credentials of conferences in order to help them decide whether to or not attend." Also, you may want to refer to "How to Make the Most of an Academic Conference" by Thomas J. Tobin.

All Web addresses were verified at the time of publication. No liability is assumed for any errors that may have been introduced inadvertently during the assembly of this FREE list of events. Kindly retain the contact information when you re-distribute the list or mount it on the web as that is how I receive notices of future events. crw

November 18-20, 2025 Munin Conference on Scholarly Publishing, 20th annual. Focuses primarily on open access, open data, and open science. "Looking at a world with an increasing conflict level, how can scientific communication navigate to stay free of government reins? We see government-initiated disinformation rallies and censorship, politicians denying scientific research results, and Artificial Intelligence tools being able to create what could look like scholarship. The ethos of science is the free exchange of information, but in the context of military conflicts – along with economic and information warfare – information becomes a strategic commodity. What is the future of open science in this situation? Is open science in danger, or is it (part of) the solution?" To be held online and at the Tromsø Campus of UiT, the Arctic University of Norway, Norway. <http://site.uit.no/muninconf/>

December 2, 2025 Political Imagination as Political Agency – Exploring Higher Education Students’ Utopianising. “Our analysis identifies a dynamic of three interrelated elements that shape students’ imaginative practices: constraints, conditions and cracks. The movement between these three elements illuminates how the political emerges unevenly in the process of collective imagination – sometimes hindered, sometimes reinforced, sometimes catalysed. We suggest that political imagination constitutes a fragile yet meaningful mode of agency. It becomes visible in how students critique the status quo, formulate alternative futures, and reposition themselves in relation to the political. We argue for the importance of political imagination and utopian thought...” Organized by the Centre for Global Higher Education (CGHE) based in Oxford, United Kingdom. December 2-5, 2025 Digital Archipelagos: Digital Humanities Australasia. "Archipelagos also serve our conference as a metaphor to spark dialogue about new directions and approaches in the Digital Humanities. They inspire us to conceptualise the fragmentation, clustering, dispersion, and interconnection of data in the Digital Humanities in discussions that prioritise local experiences and networks to challenge dominant narratives. In an age of algorithmic ubiquity, we aim to examine how seemingly isolated 'islands' of knowledge can remain distinct but intricately connected across evolving global contexts. Archipelagos can also signify the coming together of disciplines, ideas and methodologies in ways that honour local histories, languages, and cosmologies while advancing sustainable, community-informed projects in the digital arena. From 'relation-oriented AI' to 'embodied knowledge archives,' our conference theme foregrounds situatedness, proximity, and place as indispensable foci for future DH research and practice (Brown, Whaanga & Lewis 2023; Alliata et al. 2024)." Australian National University, Canberra, Australia. <https://dha25.org/>

December 3, 2025 One Europe, Many Learners: Building the Foundations for ALE Registries and ILAs. “The purpose of the RALExILA project is to propose a solid approach for the development of Adult Learning and Education registries across Europe. We foresee our efforts evolving into a shared model for enhancing ALE quality, streamlining registry implementation on a national scale, and fostering knowledge exchange among diverse practitioners.” This is the final meeting of the National Registers of Adult Learning to Support the Implementation of Individual Learning Accounts (RALExILA). “The RALExILA Final Conference will bring together representatives from national ministries, European institutions, social partners, and lifelong learning stakeholders to explore the future of Adult Learning and Education (ALE) in Europe, with a specific focus on the development of national registries and their integration into Individual Learning Account (ILA) systems. This high-level event will mark the culmination of the RALExILA project – a European initiative co-funded under Erasmus+ – which has supported Member States in developing transparent, accessible, and interoperable ALE registries. These registries are a key enabling factor for the effective and equitable implementation of ILAs, and for safeguarding the right to lifelong learning in practice.” Organized by the European Association for the Education of Adults (EAEA), the Knowledge Innovation Centre and co-funded by the European Union. To be held in Brussels, Belgium. <https://eaea.org/events/> or <https://eaea.org/event/save-the-date-ralexila-final-conference/>

December 3, 2025 Hiring Blind: Higher Ed's Hidden Skills Crisis. "Higher education institutions face a perfect storm: fierce competition for cybersecurity talent, limited budgets, and increasingly sophisticated threats targeting campus environments. IT and security leaders struggle with two critical questions: how do you know if candidates truly possess the hands-on skills they claim, and can your current team handle emerging cybersecurity threats?" "Learning Outcomes:

- Discover how AI-powered skills verification validates hands-on cybersecurity capabilities beyond traditional credentials and interviews.
- Identify hidden skills gaps within your current IT and security teams to prioritize training investments.
- Make confident hiring decisions by assessing candidates' actual technical abilities, and not just their resumes.
- Build a roadmap to maintain skilled security teams despite higher education's budget and talent retention challenges."

December 4, 2025 Wolfram Notebooks: Building and Sharing Technical Workflows. “In this course, you will learn how to create Wolfram Notebooks, interactive and powerful computational documents. This course shows how you can combine Wolfram Language with the notebook interface to express your ideas and develop technical workflows for data science, modeling, research, education and more. Discover how to build rich computational essays and presentations and publish them to the cloud. No experience with Mathematica or Wolfram Language is required.” To be held online. <https://events.wolfram.com/> or <https://www.wolfram.com/wolfram-u/courses/notebooks/building-and-sharing-technical-workflows-nb101/>

December 4, 2025 Spotlight on Artificial Intelligence. Offered will be “sessions on the implications and possibilities of AI for the digital creative industry.” Organized by FITC (Future, Innovation, Technology, Creativity), an event organizer based in Toronto, Canada. To be held online. <https://fitc.ca/events/> or https://fitc.ca/event/spotlight_ai-2/

December 4, 2025 Unfunded but Unstoppable: Driving Digital Transformation on a Shoestring. “Join this Quick-Talk and roundtable to explore how your peers are breaking through funding constraints to drive impactful, mission-aligned innovation. We’ll share real-world examples of building resilient cultures, lean operations, and political capital that free up critical resources to drive transformation.” Organized by EDUCAUSE “a nonprofit association whose mission is to lead the way, advancing the strategic use of technology and data to further the promise of higher education.” To be held online. <https://events.educause.edu/event-finder> or <https://events.educause.edu/member-quicktalks/2025/unfunded-but-unstoppable-driving-digital-transformation-on-a-shoestring>

December 4, 2025 Building Cyber Awareness: Preparing Students for Online Scam Prevention and Recovery. “Students are increasingly targeted by online scams that can compromise their finances, personal information, and sense of safety. As a vulnerable population—often new to campus systems, culture, and communication norms—they need more than just awareness; they need actionable strategies and empathetic support. In this webinar, you’ll discover how to prepare students to recognize and avoid cyberattacks, respond effectively if they fall victim, and recover both technically and emotionally. Learn practical ways to communicate cybersecurity concepts that resonate with students and foster a culture of digital safety across your campus.” Organized by Innovative Educators based in Boulder, Colorado, USA. To be held online. <https://www.innovativeeducators.org/pages/events> or <https://www.innovativeeducators.org/products/building-cyber-awareness-preparing-students-for-online-scam-prevention-recovery?pos=1&sid=9d6a01d37&ss=r>

December 4, 2025 Neurodiversity in Cybersecurity Summit. “Cybersecurity faces a growing talent gap with 700,000 unfilled jobs. To stay ahead of evolving threats, we must rethink how we attract, support, and retain top talent. Cybersecurity isn’t one-size-fits-all—nor are the brilliant minds that drive it. With up to 20% of adults identifying as neurodivergent, overlooking their unique strengths, perspectives, and problem-solving abilities means missing out on some of the most innovative, sharpest minds in the field. It’s time to break outdated molds, celebrate neurodiversity, and build stronger, more resilient cybersecurity teams.” Organized by the SANS Institute based in North Bethesda, Maryland, USA with offices worldwide. Similar events offered on different dates, online and in-person in the Americas, Asia-Pacific, Europe and the Middle East. This session will be held online. <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events?page=2> or <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events/neurodiversity-in-cybersecurity-summit-2025>

December 4-5, 2025 Joint Conference on Serious Games (JCSG). (Comprises Serious Games Development and Applications, SGDA and the International Conference on Serious Games, GameDays). “The conference addresses all aspects related to the theory and practice of Serious Games, encompassing design, development, evaluation, assessment and efficacy, immersion and engagement, technology and platform considerations, and the diverse application domains within which Serious Games can be utilized. Serious Games are increasingly adopted for various purposes, including learning and training, health and wellbeing, industrial applications, marketing, and cultural engagement.” Hosted by Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts. To be held in Rotkreuz, Switzerland. <http://www.jointconference-on-seriousgames.org/> or <https://sites.hslu.ch/jcsg2025/>

December 4-5, 2025 How to Manage an International Office. “Delve into the challenges of managing, like leading and motivating staff, communication plans and more. This course will teach you the secrets of running an international office.” Organized by the European Association for International Education (EAIE). To be held at the Social Hub Amsterdam City, Amsterdam, Netherlands. <https://www.eaie.org/events/event-calendar.html> or <https://www.eaie.org/training/academy-classroom/manage-international-office.html>

December 4-5, 2025 Strategic Planning Seminar (Americas). “Learning Objectives:

- Construct values, vision, mission and goal statements; develop a strategic management system
- Review the role of strategic planning in AACSB Accreditation
- Apply the agile methodology to strategic planning in a business school setting
- Apply key desired outcomes of your strategic plan to measurable KPIs and data for regular reporting and visualization to stakeholders

- Identify key areas where a micro plan would be effective for your school
- Learn the methodology for creating a micro plan and understand how to extend the methodology to any number of areas of your school's strategic plan or operations."

Organized by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International based in Tampa, Florida, USA. To be held online. <https://www.aacsb.edu/events/all-events?page=2> or <https://www.aacsb.edu/events/2025/12/vs2025-december-strategic-planning-seminar-americas>

December 4-5, 2025 Microsoft Power Platform Virtual Training Day: Fundamentals. "Learn the basics of building and managing low-code business solutions. Discover how to seamlessly connect your data to analyze real-time business performance, act on insights using custom-built apps, and optimize business processes with automated workflows." Organized by Microsoft and held on different dates and time zones to accommodate users worldwide. To be held free online. <https://www.microsoft.com/en-ca/events/category/microsoft-virtual-training-days?filters=delivery-language%3Aenglish&page=6&scenario=mvtd> or <https://msevents.microsoft.com/event?id=1256506011>

December 4-6, 2025 Australasian Database Conference (ADC), 35th. "Annual forum for sharing the latest research progresses and novel applications of database systems, data management, data mining and data analytics for researchers and practitioners..." University of New South Wales, Sydney and Tsinghua Southeast Asia Center, Bali, Indonesia. <https://adc-conference.github.io/2025>

December 4-6, 2025 American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) Nurse Faculty Conference: Transform 2025 – The Future in Focus – Advancing Practice-Ready Education in Baccalaureate and Master's Programs. "Transform is AACN's national conference specifically designed for faculty teaching in baccalaureate and/or master's nursing programs. This annual gathering of nursing faculty features thought leaders who are redefining how professional nurses are educated and how they practice and provide opportunity for networking with colleagues and peers." Anaheim Marriott, Anaheim, California, USA. <https://www.aacnnursing.org/conferences-webinars/conferences/future-conferences> or <https://www.aacnnursing.org/transform> or <https://www.aacnnursing.org/conferences> or <https://www.aacnnursing.org/transform/registration>

December 4-7, 2025 International Conference on Engineering, Technology, and Education. "Catering to researchers and practitioners with an interest in engineering, technology, and integrated STEAM education as well as those interested in the innovative use of digital technologies for learning, teaching, and assessment in any discipline." Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). To be held in Macao, China. <https://ieee-edusociety.org/conferences/about-conferences/upcoming-events> or <https://ieee-edusociety.org/event/conference/international-conference-engineering-technology-and-education>

December 4-7, 2025 National Association for Music Education (NAfME) Professional Development for Music Educators "with performances by State School Music Ensembles including collegiate, P-12, and Community Ensembles. In addition, 900 All State Musicians in the All-State Music Ensembles" will perform. Rochester Riverside Convention Center, 123 E Main St, Rochester, New York State, USA. <https://nafme.org/event/nyssma-winter-conference-2025/> or <https://nafme.org/professional-learning-events/event-calendar/>

December 5, 2025 EAI International Conference on Wireless Internet. "The primary focus of WiCON 2025 is to address the challenges and advancements in wireless Internet technologies, particularly as they relate to critical infrastructure and cybersecurity. The conference will provide a platform for presenting cutting-edge research and developments in wireless systems, with a strong emphasis on both the present and future next-generation wireless Internet technologies. WiCON 2025 will also highlight the increasing need for security measures in these technologies, given the rapid rise in cybercrime and the growing dependence on the Internet worldwide." Organized by the European Alliance for Innovation (EAI) "a non-profit organization and a professional community established in cooperation with the European Commission to empower the global research and innovation, and to promote cooperation between European and International ICT communities." Istanbul, Türkiye. <https://wicon.eai-conferences.org/2025/>

December 5, 2025 Next Steps for Spectrum Policy and Regulation in the UK. “Discussion will consider priorities for future connectivity, including advanced communications, satellite, and preparation for 6G, looking at frameworks needed to support advanced communications technologies and the UK’s engagement in international coordination. It takes place in an evolving regulatory landscape, as well as the wider context of the 10-Year UK Infrastructure Strategy and the Industrial Strategy - which place spectrum at the centre of an agenda for critical digital infrastructure delivery and growth....and priorities for Ofcom’s upcoming mmWave spectrum auction aimed at widening access and improving 5G services across the UK.” Organized by the Westminster Forum Projects, Bracknell, Berkshire, United Kingdom. To be held online. <https://www.westminsterforumprojects.co.uk/conferences/westminster-eforum> or <https://www.westminsterforumprojects.co.uk/conference/Spectrum-25>

December 5, 2025 An Introduction to Computational Biology, Machine Learning and Artificial Intelligence. “Advances in biology such as the sequencing of the human genome and advances in imaging techniques have led to an explosion of data in the biosciences. One of the challenges with the analysis of such data is the volume, resolution and complexity of the data generated; plus, the quality of the data. These issues from a bioinformatics perspective are often typified by the criticism that different data sets do not yield consistent results. This would indicate that often such individual data sets have high levels of noise and thus do not have sufficient cases to achieve a sufficient statistical power. Thus, analysis of such data requires careful consideration, paying attention to the non-linearity of biological systems, the interaction of molecular entities in pathways, the fluidity of biological systems and the need for determination of consistent entities across multiple data sets. These challenges can be addressed through appropriate application of computational methods such as artificial intelligence and machine learning.” Organized by the Royal Society of Biology, UK. To be held online via Zoom. <https://www.rsb.org.uk/events.html> or <https://my.rsb.org.uk/item.php?eventid=4615>

December 5, 2025 Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE, UK) Fourm. Begins with a discussion on conflicts of interest followed by cases sent by COPE Members. “COPE brings together all those involved in scholarly research and its publication, to strengthen the network of support, education and debate in publication ethics.” To be offered online. <https://publicationethics.org/events> or <https://publicationethics.org/events/cope-forum-december-2025>

December 5, 2025 Connecting and Building Relationships with Policymakers. “The STR program engages students in the varied stages of the undergraduate research process. Participants learn valuable skills in communicating the impact of their undergraduate research experiences to a variety of audience members and stakeholders. The STR Program expands and enhances the learning of CUR’s previous successful advocacy offerings, Posters on the Hill and REU Symposium.” Organized by Scholars Transforming Through Research (STR) of the Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR) based in Gaithersburg, Maryland, USA. To be held online. <https://www.cur.org/events/list/> or <https://www.cur.org/events-services/str-program/>

December 5, 2025 Navigating Uncertainty in Higher Education. “In today’s climate, higher education civic and community engagement efforts are facing unprecedented challenges from many angles. With changes happening rapidly at the federal, state, and local levels, it can feel difficult to stay up-to-date and keep our work moving forward. This space will bring us together to navigate these challenges, collectively share information, and offer mutual aid.” Organized by the Campus Compact that focuses on deepening institutions’ abilities “to improve community life and to educate students for civic and social responsibility”. Campus Compact, is based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. This event will be held online. <https://compact.org/events> or <https://compact.org/events/navigating-uncertainty-in-higher-ed>

December 5, 2025 Effective Case Teaching Workshop. “Learning Objectives:

- identify the key prerequisites for effective case teaching
- understand the value of planning and preparation
- explore the core principles of leading a successful case teaching session.”

Organized by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International based in Tampa, Florida, USA. To be held online. <https://www.aacsb.edu/events/all-events?page=2> or <https://www.aacsb.edu/events/2025/12/vs-2025-december-effective-case-teaching-workshop>

December 5-6, 2025 Ontario Council for Exceptional Children (Ontario CEC): Enhancing Inclusive & Accessible Learning, Matterings, and Well-being for All, 69th annual. "To support the learning and life outcomes for students with disabilities and/or gifts and talents, Ontario CEC welcomes the submission of innovative, research-based, evidence-based, or practice-informed proposals" on a variety of topics including: Artificial Intelligence (AI), At-risk Children & Youth, Autism Spectrum Disorder, Care & Treatment, Cultural & Linguistic Diversity, Developmental Disabilities, Safe & Healthy Schools, Self-determination & Advocacy, Social Justice, Technology, Transitions, and Well-being and Mental Health. Toronto, Ontario, Canada. <https://exceptionalchildren.org/events> or <https://ontario.exceptionalchildren.org/cec-ontario-events>

December 5-7, 2025 International Conference on Technology for Education (T4E): Technology For, Of, In, Across Education, 13th. Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Organized by the EdTech Society, India and hosted by IIT Madras. T4E 2025 will be held in Chennai, India. <https://etsociety.org/t4e-2025/> or <https://etsociety.org/product-category/event/> or <https://www.computer.org/conferences/calendar> or <https://www.computer.org/conferences/calendar?queryState=%7B%7D>

December 5-7, 2025 Foreign Language Teaching Conference, 4th. "The conference aims to bring together researchers, educators, policymakers, and practitioners from around the world to share insights and best practices in the field of education. We welcome papers on a wide range of topics, including Education Theory and Practice, Language Education (ELT/ FLT), Education Policy and Administration, Teaching, Child and Family Education, Learning, Teacher Education, and e-Learning. Other related topics will also be considered." To be held in Paris, France. <https://www.ieconf.org/foreign-language-teaching-conference/>

December 5-7, 2025 National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) Conference, 105th. "Educating for democracy is not only the purview of government or civics teachers, but is the duty of educators who center students, families and communities in their classrooms. It's about creating liberatory spaces where everyone has an equal opportunity to succeed, where everyone is valued and respected, and where everyone's consciousness is raised about the world around them. Teaching for democracy goes beyond teaching about governance and instead calls upon us to empower students to use critical knowledge and skills to advocate individually and collectively for a more just future." To be held at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, Washington, D.C., USA. <https://www.socialstudies.org/conference/105th-ncss-annual-conference> or <https://www.socialstudies.org/conference>

December 5-7, 2025 California Teachers Association New Educator Weekend North. "The conference has everything that educators need to be successful in their first years of teaching, including sessions about classroom management, creating engaging classrooms, lesson plans and ideas, connecting with your union, student loan forgiveness information, member benefits, project grants and more." Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport, Burlingame, California, USA. <https://www.cta.org/conferences> or <https://www.cta.org/event/2025-new-educator-weekend-north>

December 5-7, 2025 Virtual Instructional Design Certificate. "An effective instructional design process follows a system of assessing needs, designing a process, developing materials, and evaluating effectiveness. Creating programs for a virtual platform is no different and requires the same foundational skills. Core instructional design fundamentals require the analysis and selection of the most appropriate strategies, methodologies, and technologies to maximize the online learning experience and knowledge transfer—whether you are converting a face-to-face classroom course or designing for a virtual delivery from the beginning." Organized by the Association for Talent Development. Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. This session will be held online. <https://www.td.org/education/search-all-programs?offset=0> or https://www.td.org/education-courses/virtual-instructional-design-certificate?__queryID=ab7168848585cfe41f65105347fb362b&objectID=CERT_VID&__position=30&index=atd_composable_prod_en-US_newest

December 6 (or 7), 2025 Generative and Protective AI for Content Creation (GenProCC) Workshop, 1st. “While GenAI has shown significant potential in creative applications (e.g., music, films, arts), these breakthroughs also raise pressing concerns related to safety, copyright, and ethical use. Generative models can be exploited to spread misinformation, violate intellectual property rights, or diminish human agency in creative processes. As such, there is an increasing need to balance innovation with protection, ensuring that AI-powered creative tools are used responsibly and ethically.” “Session topics include:

- Controllable Generative AI for Content Creation
- Protective AI Approaches for Content Creation
- Creative Practices with Generative AI”

Organized by GenProCC based in San Diego, California. San Diego Convention Center, San Diego, California, United States. <https://genprocc.github.io/> or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

December 7, 2025 NeurIPS Workshop on Artificial Intelligence for Music: Where Creativity Meets Computation. “The goal of this workshop is twofold: First, we aim to explore the latest advancements of AI’s applications for music, from analysis, creation, performance, production, retrieval to music education and therapy. Second, we aim to discuss the impacts and implications of AI in music, including AI’s impacts on the music industry, musician community, and music education as well as ethical, legal and societal implications of AI music and AI’s implications for future musicians. We will emphasize networking and community building in this workshop to generate a sustainable research momentum.” San Diego Convention Center, San Diego, California, USA. <https://aiformusicworkshop.github.io/> or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

December 7-9, 2025 International Conferences on Artificial Intelligence and Teacher Education (ICAITE), 2nd. “ICAITE 2025 will provide a suitable environment and opportunity to discuss new research/engineering achievements on more flexible, sophisticated, and predictive solutions for the existing and coming problems and challenges in the field of AI and teacher education.” The conference is sponsored by Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) and co-sponsored by Ritsumeikan University and Beijing Spring Institute of Education (BSIE), technically supported by Kyoto University of Advanced Science, Japan, which focuses on all technical and practical aspects of computer technologies. Kyoto, Japan. <https://ieee-edusociety.org/conferences/about-conferences/upcoming-events> or <https://ieee-edusociety.org/event/conference/2025-2nd-international-conference-artificial-intelligence-and-teacher-education>

December 7-9 2025 Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer Forum. “The global marketplace has never been more complex, and the compliance and ethics function has never been more demanding.” Organized by Consero, an event planner, based in Bethesda, Maryland, USA. The event will be held at The Biltmore Miami Coral Gables, Florida, USA. <https://consero.com/events/chief-ethics-compliance-officer-forum-4/> or <https://consero.com/events/chief-ethics-compliance-officer-forum-6/>

December 7-9, 2025 Strengthen Cloud Security with Microsoft Defender for Cloud. “Learn how to apply strong, unified security measures across your cloud apps. Discover how to deploy a cloud-native application protection platform (CNAPP) strategy using Microsoft Defender for Cloud.” Organized by Microsoft and held on different dates and time zones to accommodate users worldwide. To be held free online. <https://www.microsoft.com/en-ca/events/category/microsoft-virtual-training-days?filters=delivery-language%3Aenglish&page=6&scenario=mvtd> or <https://msevents.microsoft.com/event?id=2329608247>

December 7-10, 2025 Australasian Association for Engineering Education (AAEE) Conference: Engineering Education – Between the Human and the Digital, 36th. “The theme of the conference arises from the dichotomy that, as the world becomes more digital through technologies like generative AI, human centred skills become more important. In addition to the impact on the engineering profession, we see similar tensions in the inherently human and social processes of learning. This means that the exponential development of AI and related technologies raises many new questions for engineering educators and many questions that seem very familiar.” Hosted by the Australasian Association for Engineering Education and the University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia. To be held at St. Lucia

Campus, University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia. <https://aaee.net.au/conferences/> or <https://aaee.net.au/conferences-new/> or <https://aaee2025.org/>

December 7-10, 2025 Learning Forward Annual Conference: Bridging Professional Learning and Student Success. (Learning Forward was formerly known as the National Staff Development Council, NSDC.) We will take “reimagined possibilities and leveraging them with evidence-based practices to achieve our ultimate goal to reach new heights for students.” “The only conference focused exclusively on how to plan, implement, and measure high-quality professional learning that changes educator practice and improves results for all students.” Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, Boston, Massachusetts, USA. <https://conference.learningforward.org/>

December 7-10, 2025 (in-person) and January 27-29, 2025 (online) League for Innovation in the Community College Executive Leadership Institute. “ELI provides the opportunity for prospective community college presidents, or those in transition, to analyze their abilities, reflect on their interests, refine their skills, and engage in leadership discussions with an unparalleled faculty of community college leaders from across North America.” To be held online and at Tempe Mission Palms, Tempe, Arizona, USA. <https://www.league.org/web-page/events-calendar> or <https://www.league.org/eli2025>

December 8, 2025 Supporting English as an Additional Language (EAL) and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) Students. “This workshop is designed specifically for Secondary Humanities teachers and will provide a brief overview of how additional languages are learned and participants will spend time looking at school through the eyes of an EAL student. They will learn techniques used by EAL teachers and look at how they can incorporate these into their current practices. In addition, participants will explore practical ways they can use technology to make their subject more accessible for EAL students.” Organized by Critical Agendas, Geelong, Victoria, Australia. To be held online. https://www.criticalagendas.com.au/events/?_sft_event-category=1-day-workshops or <https://www.criticalagendas.com.au/events/supporting-eal-students-in-mainstream-secondary-humanities-classes/>

December 8, 2025 Skills for Democracy: How Vocational Education and Training Shapes Active Citizenship. 19th Cedefop Brussels Seminar organised in cooperation with the Danish Presidency of the Council of the EU. Brussels, Belgium. <https://www.cedefop.europa.eu/en/events/upcoming-events> or <https://www.cedefop.europa.eu/en/events/skills-democracy-how-vocational-education-and-training-shapes-active-citizenship>

December 8, 2025 Next Steps for Artificial Intelligence Regulation in Ireland. “Areas for discussion include the designation and resourcing of sectoral regulators amidst concerns over preparedness, the coordination of a lead authority, and Ireland’s influence at an EU level through the AI Board. It will also be an opportunity to discuss key recommendations from the AI Advisory Council, including on sandboxes and copyright, and latest thinking on the Oireachtas Committee on AI’s work on responsible AI deployment.” Organized by the Westminster Forum Projects, Bracknell, Berkshire, United Kingdom. To be held online. <https://www.westminsterforumprojects.co.uk/conferences/westminster-eforum> or <https://www.westminsterforumprojects.co.uk/conference/PFFI-AI-Reg-25>

December 8, 2025 IEEE Big Data Workshop on AI for Music Generation with Music Competition (AIMG), 3rd. “This workshop aims to generate momentum around this topic of growing interest, and to encourage interdisciplinary interaction and collaboration between AI, music, Natural Language Processing (NLP), machine learning, multimedia, Human-Computer Interaction (HCI), audio processing, computational linguistics, and neuroscience. It serves as a forum to bring together active researchers and practitioners from academia and industry to share their recent advances in this promising area.” Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) Computer Society. Offered online. https://intellisky.org/workshops/AIMG2025/workshop_AIMG2025.html or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

December 8, 2025 Deans and Department Chairs: Coaching Skills to Lead through Influence. “Learn how to shift from being the problem-solver to inspiring those you lead to take ownership and solve their own challenges as you build creative accountability skills. Through a coaching-based model, learn how to foster psychological safety and build engagement and accountability in your team. Grounded in research and coaching best practices, this experience offers hands-on learning and real-world scenarios that build confidence and capability. Leave with role-adaptable skills that elevate performance, strengthen relationships, and help create a culture where people feel empowered to grow and contribute.” Organized by Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS), USA. To be held in Chicago, Illinois, USA. <https://www.isacs.org/professionallearning/workshops-webinars> or <https://www.isacs.org/professionallearning/workshops-webinars/12-8-25>

December 8, 2025 Strategize Your Strategy: Planning for the Year Ahead. Playful pedagogy, grounded in research and driven by curiosity, is proving to be a powerful approach for engaging students across disciplines. “Outcomes:

- Think about the current landscape of higher education and how to plan and proactively adapt to changes ahead.
- Discuss lessons learned for “managing up” and supporting strategic initiatives from all levels of an organization.
- Learn about strategies to engineer innovation into institutional processes.
- Discuss how higher education teams will use data and analytics to drive decision-making in 2026.”

Organized by EDUCAUSE, an association “for higher education information technology professionals and technology providers from around the world.” It comprises “115,000 individuals, 2,100+ member organizations”, and “has 242+ non-U.S. institutional members.” To be held online. <https://events.educause.edu/event-finder> or <https://events.educause.edu/webinar/2025/showcase-webinar-strategize-your-strategy-planning-for-the-year-ahead>

December 8-9, 2025 Next-Generation Artificial Intelligence Tools for Higher Education. “Boost productivity and support smarter decision-making through the effective use of AI

- Use AI to streamline workflows, reduce manual tasks, and automate routine communications
- Boost meeting productivity by generating clear summaries, action items, and reports automatically
- Leverage AI to support strategic decision making
- Apply best-practice strategies to manage privacy, ensure accuracy, and mitigate bias.”

Organized by Liquid Learning based in Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. This event will be held online. <https://liquidlearning.com/events> or <https://liquidlearning.com/events/next-generation-ai-tools-practices-higher-education-aiwf1225a-o>

December 8-9, 2025 Women of the Channel Leadership Summit East. “The meeting place for women from across the IT channel who are looking to advance organizational diversity, make unmatched connections, and empower and cultivate women leaders”. Organized by the Channel Co. based in Westborough, Massachusetts, USA. This event will be held at the New York Hilton Midtown, New York City, New York, USA. <https://events.thechannelco.com/events> or <https://www.thechannelco.com/WOTC> or <https://event.thechannelco.com/wotc-east>

December 8-9, 2025 Amazon Web Services Certified Security – Specialty Crash Course. “AWS has a whole new AWS Certified Security exam. The SCS-C02 explores new knowledge areas, services, domains and features and it’s crucial that you understand these before taking the test. In this two-day course you will get targeted training on the core objectives covered in the exam, so you have the knowledge you need to successfully achieve certification” Organized by O’Reilly Media Inc. based in Sebastopol, California, USA. This course is offered at different times throughout the year and online. <https://www.oreilly.com/live-events/?page=2> or <https://www.oreilly.com/live-events/aws-certified-security-specialty-scs-c02-crash-course/0636920094076/0642572252113/>

December 8-10, 2025 Open-Source Summit Japan. “The premier vendor-neutral open-source conference in Japan for developers and technologists to collaborate, share information and learn about the latest technologies and innovations across open source.” Organized by the Linux Foundation. To be held in Tokyo, Japan. <https://events.linuxfoundation.org/> or <https://events.linuxfoundation.org/open-source-summit-japan-2025/>

December 8-10, 2025 AI_dev: Open-Source Generative Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning Summit Europe. “AI_dev is a nexus for developers delving into the intricate realm of open-source generative AI and machine learning. At the heart of this event is the belief that open source is the engine of innovation in AI. By uniting the brightest developers from around the world, we aim to ignite discussions, foster collaborations, and shape the trajectory of open-source AI.” Organized by the Linux Foundation. To be held in Tokyo, Japan. <https://events.linuxfoundation.org/about/calendar/> or <https://events.linuxfoundation.org/ai-dev-japan-2025/>

December 8-10, 2025 EAI International Conference on Safe, Secure, Ethical, Responsible Technologies and Emerging Applications, 3rd. “A conference aimed at bringing together multi-disciplinary scientists and practitioners as well as societal actors to explore and converge on sustainable, adapted solutions guaranteeing safe, secure, responsible, and ethical use of emerging cybertechnologies and related applications.” Organized by the European Alliance for Innovation (EAI) “a non-profit organization and a professional community established in cooperation with the European Commission to empower the global research and innovation, and to promote cooperation between European and International ICT communities.” To be held online and in Cape Town, South Africa. <https://safertea.eai-conferences.org/2025/>

December 8-10, 2025 Education 2.0: Enriching Education through Collaboration. “Gathering the most renowned educationists, EdTech innovators, policymakers, and researchers, the Education 2.0 Conference reimagines the education space and looks for innovative solutions to the most pressing problems impacting learning and teaching on a global level.” Organized by Education 2.0 based in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA. The company believes that “Education holds the key to the upliftment of society and the world at large. It can elevate the quality of life of millions, ushering in a future which is more inclusive, equitable and peaceful.” To be held at the InterContinental Hotel, Dubai Festival City, Dubai, United Arab Emirates. <https://www.education2conf.com/>

December 8-10, 2025 IEEE International Symposium on Multimedia (ISM), 27th. “Research in multimedia computing is generally concerned with presentation, integration and computation of one or more media, such as text, image, graphics, audio, video, social data, and data collected from various sensors, etc., using computing techniques”. Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) Computer Society. To be held online and at the Royal Continental Hotel, Naples, Italy. <https://www.ieee-ism.org/> or <https://www.multimediacomputing.org/> or <https://www.computer.org/conferences/calendar>

December 8-10, 2025 UnitedXR Europe. (2,000+ attendees, 150 speakers, and 150 exhibits) “Augmented World Expo (AWE) and Stereopsia unite to launch the most powerful XR event in Europe: UnitedXR Europe...will host the #1 hub for XR innovation, industry leadership, and next-gen immersive experiences, to accelerate the European immersive ecosystem towards mainstream adoption.” To be held at Maison de la Poste, Rue Picard 5-7, Brussels, Belgium. <https://unitedxr.eu/>

December 8-10 2025 Observational Research Design and Analysis. “This workshop introduces participants to the essentials of observational research, covering study types (cross-sectional, cohort, case-control, ecological) and when they are most appropriate. Participants will learn how to design studies and choose sampling strategies, define exposures and outcomes, and collect valid, reliable data. Key challenges such as bias, confounding, and effect modification are explored alongside strategies to address them, including DAGs and statistical adjustments. The workshop also highlights common analytic methods, ethical considerations, and reporting standards like STROBE.” Organized by Instats Holding, United Kingdom, <https://instats.org/>, which specializes on “Research Without Limits”. To be offered online. <https://instats.org/results?nav=Livestream&view=Seminars> or <https://instats.org/seminar/observational-research-design-and-analys>

December 8-10, 2025 Applying Artificial Intelligence in Learning and Development Certificate. “This program will help you lean into your professional knowledge and guide AI to create enhanced learning solutions that are highly applicable and relevant to your work. You will also learn to integrate AI into your everyday workflows to help automate and streamline day-to-day tasks, freeing your time for deeper work.

Throughout the program, you will experiment directly with AI tools and models to solve real-world L&D challenges.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA). Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. This session will be held online. <https://www.td.org/education/search-all-programs?offset=0> or https://www.td.org/education-courses/applying-ai-in-learning-and-development-certificate?queryID=0eb612e318430b9d609b67ea205a82f1&objectID=CERT_AAILD&position=31&index=atd_composable_prod_en-US_newest December 8-10, 2025 International Consultants for Education and Fairs (ICEF) Miami/Latin America. (Expectations: 240+ agents, 330+ providers, and participants from 40+ countries) “The event is for international education professionals, student recruitment agents, and “providers of services to the global study abroad industry.” “Connecting educational institutions and service providers from around the world with quality, pre-screened student recruitment agents from Latin America.” Miami, Florida, USA. <https://www.icef.com/events/> or <https://www.icef.com/events/icef-miami/>

December 8-10, 2025 School Leaders Advancing Technology in Education (SLATE) Annual Convention: Using Technology to Engage Learners Like Never Before, 15th. (1,900 attendees) SLATE “is a comprehensive educational technology convention designed to meet the needs of all schools and districts”. Kalahari Resort, Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin, USA. <http://slateinwi.com/>

December 8-10, 2025 Chief Information Officer (CIO) National Flagship Summit: Bridging AI and Innovation Across Leadership Frontiers to Accelerate Business Transformation. (Similar events are held in Canada, Europe, and the USA.) Organized by CDM Media based in Scottsdale, Arizona, USA. The event will be held in Scottsdale, Arizona, USA. <https://www.cdmmedia.com/cio> or <https://events.cdmmedia.com/event/2e40185a-b70c-450c-b490-9e6e86c70d90/summary>

December 8-10, 2025 Gartner Identity and Access Management Summit. (1,900+ attendees) The event will cover the necessity of having a robust identity and access management (IAM) program and a dynamic identity governance and administration control. Gartner, headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, USA, has 2,500 research and advisory experts who “deliver actionable, objective insight to executives and their teams” in 85 countries. To be held in Grapevine, Texas, USA. <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/calendar> or <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/na/identity-access-management-us>

December 8-10, 2025 Civic Learning and Social Change Conference. “Will showcase the expertise of student affairs professionals as catalysts for enhancing civic learning and social change through community, curiosity, advocacy, pedagogy, and strategic thinking.” Organized by NASPA (Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education) and the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU). Long Beach, California, USA. <https://www.naspa.org/events> or <https://www.naspa.org/events-online-learning/upcoming-conferences-and-institutes> or <https://www.naspa.org/events/civic-learning-and-social-change-conference>

December 8-10, 2025 The Power of Play: Reimagining Higher Education in the Age of Artificial Intelligence. “Playful pedagogy, grounded in research and driven by curiosity, is proving to be a powerful approach for engaging students across disciplines.” “Learning Outcomes:

- Explain foundational theories and research supporting playful pedagogy in higher education, with attention to how generative AI tools can amplify engagement, creativity, and exploration.
- Identify global examples of playful, AI-integrated teaching practices across a variety of disciplines, modalities, and course levels.
- Evaluate how playful pedagogy—enhanced by AI—can help address critical challenges in higher education such as learner engagement, a sense of belonging, and creative problem-solving.
- Reflect on their own pedagogical values and identify opportunities to incorporate playful, AI-supported strategies into their instructional design and classroom practice.”

Organized by EDUCAUSE (Boulder, Colorado, USA) “a nonprofit association whose mission is to advance higher education through the use of information technology.” To be held online.

December 8-11, 2025 IEEE International Conference on Big Data. “Big Data is transforming science, engineering, medicine, healthcare, finance, business, and ultimately our society itself. The IEEE Big Data conference series started in 2013 has established itself as the top tier research conference in Big Data... It will provide a leading forum for disseminating the latest results in Big Data Research, Development, and Applications.” Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). To be hosted by the University of Macau, Macau, China. <https://conferences.cis.um.edu.mo/ieeebigdata2025/> or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

December 8-11, 2025 Black Hat Europe. Offers “deeply technical hands-on cybersecurity trainings, with courses available for all skill levels...[and] Briefings featuring the latest in research, developments, and trends in cybersecurity, along with dozens of open-source tool demos in Arsenal, a robust Business Hall, networking, and social events, and much more.” ExCel London, London, United Kingdom. <https://www.blackhat.com/upcoming.html> or <https://www.blackhat.com/upcoming.html#europe>

December 8-12, 2025 IEEE GLOBECOM: Global Communications Conference, Exhibition and Industry Forum: Sustainable Communications for Ubiquitous Intelligence. “Each year, more than 3,000 scientific researchers and their management submit proposals for program sessions to be held at the annual conference. After extensive peer review, the best of the proposals are selected for the conference program, which includes technical papers, tutorials, workshops and industry sessions designed specifically to advance technologies, systems and infrastructure that are continuing to reshape the world and provide all users with access to an unprecedented spectrum of high-speed, seamless and cost-effective global telecommunications services.” Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Taipei International Convention Center (TICC), Taipei, Taiwan. <https://globecom2025.ieee-globecom.org/>

December 8-12, 2025 Using Instructional Rounds to Cultivate High-Quality Learning in Schools. “Learn the principles and practices of instructional rounds, a collaborative process for observing, analyzing, and improving teaching and learning from the Harvard faculty who created the methodology and authored Instructional Rounds in Education.” “Please note that Instructional Rounds only accepts team applications of at least four or more members.” Organized by and to be held at Harvard Graduate School of Education, Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA. <https://www.gse.harvard.edu/professional-education/k-12-programs> or <https://www.gse.harvard.edu/professional-education/program/using-instructional-rounds-cultivate-high-quality-learning-schools>

December 8-12, 2025 International Conference on Excellence, Innovation, and Creativity in Basic and Higher Education and Psychology: Latest Developments in Research and Practices, 27th. “Is committed to the development of all learners as productive world citizens and leaders for the future.” Organized by the International Centre for Innovation in Education (ICIE). Sponsored by the University of Bucharest, Prairie View A & M University, University of Winnipeg, Durham University, and the Minority Achievement, Creativity, and High Ability Center. To be held in Houston, Texas, USA. <http://www.icieconference.net/>

December 8-12, 2025 Research at the Interface of Applied Mathematics and Machine Learning. “The conference will expose early career researchers to cutting-edge research at the interface of applied mathematics and machine learning. It will also help identify new research directions and will foster the building of new collaborations between research groups in the Texas-Louisiana area and other regions.” University of Houston, Houston, Texas, USA. <https://www.ams.org/meetings/calendar/mathcal> or <https://www.math.uh.edu/cbms-amml/>

December 8-12, 2025 Internet2 Technology Exchange (TechEX25). “Internet2 is a community providing a secure high-speed network, cloud solutions, research support and services tailored for research and development”. “Recognizing that Artificial Intelligence (AI) is having an impact on all areas of our technical community’s work, each of the track descriptions includes AI in the suggested topics of interest. We plan to have a day devoted to AI with one AI talk in each time slot.” This event will be held in Sheraton Denver Downtown, Denver, Colorado, USA. <https://internet2.edu/upcomingevents/> or <https://events.internet2.edu/website/84273/>

December 8-14, 2025 Assessment Strategies that Engage Students. “An important component of successful online teaching is developing effective assessment strategies and integrating multiple forms of assessment in order to provide students with diverse opportunities to evaluate their performance. In this workshop, you will discover a multitude of formative and summative assessment techniques used in online education, including both traditional and alternative assessments, and how to find an appropriate balance between the two.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. “The OLC is a collaborative community of higher education leaders and innovators, dedicated to advancing quality digital teaching and learning experiences designed to reach and engage the modern learner – anyone, anywhere, anytime”. To be held online.

December 9, 2025 Using Music in the Language Classroom When You Can’t Sing, Dance, or Play an Instrument. “How can a non-musician tap into the rich world of music and bring this world to their classroom? In this workshop, participants will explore: The cognitive benefits of music. Music as an aid to memory. Music as a reflection of target language culture. Music as a stimulus for language production. Ways to use instrumental music.” Organized by Critical Agendas, Geelong, Victoria, Australia. To be held online. https://www.criticalagendas.com.au/events/?_sft_event-category=1-day-workshops or <https://www.criticalagendas.com.au/events/using-music-in-the-language-classroom-when-you-cant-sing-dance-or-play-an-instrument/>

December 9, 2025 EDUGATE 17th. “EDUGATE is a leading educational service and consultancy firm that focuses on higher education and skills development in the Middle East and North Africa region. We bring the latest innovation and expertise in international higher education and skills to Egypt and the rest of the region through the two main streams: EDUGATE consultancies and the EDUGATE annual university fair and forum.” Crowne Plaza, Alexandria, Egypt. <https://edugate-eg.com/>

December 9, 2025 Quality in Blended Mobility: Tools, Practices, and Future Directions. Explore “how higher education institutions can design and implement high-quality blended mobility programmes. The valuable insights and tools will be presented at the project’s closing event.” Organized by the European University Foundation (EUF) based in Luxembourg and Brussels, Belgium. To be held online and in Brussels, Belgium. <https://uni-foundation.eu/events/> or <https://hiblend.eu/quality-in-blended-mobility-tools-practices-and-future-directions/>

December 9, 2025 Designing Micro-credentials as Inclusive Learning Pathways to Foster Transversal Competencies for Migrant Adult Learners in an Intersectional Perspective. Organized by the European Association for the Education of Adults (EAEA) and the European Economic and Social Committee (Brussels). To be held at the European Economic and Social Committee, Rue Belliard 99, Brussels, 1040 Belgium. <https://eaea.org/events/> or <https://eaea.org/event/designing-micro-credentials-as-inclusive-learning-pathways-to-foster-transversal-competences-for-migrant-learners-in-an-intersectional-perspective/>

December 9, 2025 National Qualifications Frameworks (NQFs) Developments across Europe. “Countries are working towards strengthening the role of NQFs as main features of their education and training systems, increasing their awareness among citizens and use by different actors. Countries have reported considerable progress in opening up their frameworks to qualifications awarded outside formal education and training. According to them, NQFs most often have a positive impact on promoting transparency of qualifications and the use of learning outcomes.” Organized by the European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training (CEDEFOP). To be held online. <https://www.cedefop.europa.eu/en/events/upcoming-events> or <https://www.cedefop.europa.eu/en/events/2025-nqf-developments-across-europe>

December 9, 2025 Meet the Top Robotics Startups Solving Global Challenges. “Artificial Intelligence (AI) paired with robotic technologies offer cutting-edge solutions to societal challenges in numerous fields; from assistive technologies and health, smart transport, workplace safety, sustainable food production and consumption, green energy, climate change, security, equality, and more. Startups with robotic innovations that can help solve some of the humanity’s biggest challenges are invited to pitch their solution for the Robotics for Good Innovation Factory.” Organized by AI for Good initiated by the United Nation’s International Telecommunication Union (ITU) in partnership with over 40 UN Sister Agencies. To be held online based on the time in Geneva, Switzerland. <https://aiforgood.itu.int/ai-events-calendar/?attendance=online> or <https://aiforgood.itu.int/event/meet-the-top-robotics-startups-solving-global-challenges/>

December 9, 2025 Educational Excellence Symposium: Excellence in Practice. “This symposium will share ideas and provide a forum to discuss methods by which to best provide a quality education experience for all.” Organized by AdvanceHE, based in London, United Kingdom, “that works with institutions and higher education across the world to improve higher education for staff, students and society”. To be held online. <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/events?page=1> or <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/programmes-events/calendar/educational-excellence-symposium-2025-0>

December 9, 2025 Association of Colleges (AoC, UK) Quality, Teaching, Learning and Assessment Conference and Exhibition. “Teaching, Learning and Assessment approaches are constantly evolving and colleges are at the forefront of change. What is the latest thinking on effective pedagogy and how can we ensure that all our staff are making the best use of the tools and resources available to them? How do we ensure that all our students benefit from teaching and evaluation which engages and motivates them and supports effective learning?” To be held at the De Vere Connaught Rooms, London,

United Kingdom. <https://www.aoc.co.uk/events-training/events/aoc-qtla-conference-and-exhibition-2025> or <https://www.aoc.co.uk/events-training/events>

December 9, 2025 Governance Conference: Shaping the Future of Higher Education Governance. “This year’s conference will explore practical applications of governance with special emphasis on navigating the rapidly evolving landscape, financial sustainability, and changing student expectations. The day will also include workshops on emerging challenges in the sector, and dedicated networking sessions to facilitate deeper collaboration among institutions.” Organized by AdvanceHE, based in London, United Kingdom, “that works with institutions and higher education across the world to improve higher education for staff, students and society”. To be held at Broadway House, Tothill St., London, United Kingdom. <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/events?page=1> or <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/governance/governance-conference-2025-shaping-future-he-governance>

December 9, 2025 An Introduction to The Clinical Teacher: The Place to Share Your Innovation, Scholarship and Impact. “We take a look at publishing in The Clinical Teacher, the multi-professional international medical education journal for clinicians who teach and those involved in education within healthcare and university settings. Whilst many journals focus predominantly on theoretical and epistemological development in the field, The Clinical Teacher has a strong practical focus underpinned by scholarship.” Organized by the Association for the Study of Medical Education (ASME, UK). To be held online. <https://www.asme.org.uk/events/> or <https://www.asme.org.uk/events/the-clinical-teacher/>

December 9, 2025 Online Classroom Management: Designing for Connection, Accountability and Student Success. “Participants will leave this session with a clear understanding of how to apply research-based strategies to their own online teaching. They will learn how to structure courses in ways that reduce cognitive load and confusion, communicate expectations that guide meaningful participation, and establish a presence that supports connection and motivation. They will also gain strategies for monitoring engagement and intervening early, as well as approaches to adapt these techniques for both asynchronous and synchronous contexts.” Organized by Innovative Educators based in Boulder, Colorado, USA. To be held online. <https://www.innovativeeducators.org/pages/events> or https://www.innovativeeducators.org/products/online-classroom-management-designing-for-connection-accountability-student-success?_pos=1&_sid=8b984a342&_ss=r

December 9, 2025 Care and Reformatting of Microfilm. “Will first provide an introduction to micro formats and the role they’ve played in preserving and disseminating information, from their introduction until today.” Organized by the Northeast Document Conservation Center (NEDCC), Andover, Massachusetts, USA. Offered online. <https://www.nedcc.org/preservation-training/training-currentlist> or <https://www.nedcc.org/event-template/?eventtemplate=17-care-and-reformatting-of-microfilm>

December 9, 2025 IEEE Big Data Workshop on AI for Music Generation with Music Competition (AIMG), 3rd. “This workshop aims to generate momentum around this topic of growing interest, and to encourage interdisciplinary interaction and collaboration between AI, music, Natural Language Processing (NLP), machine learning, multimedia, Human-Computer Interaction (HCI), audio processing, computational linguistics, and neuroscience. It serves as a forum to bring together active researchers and practitioners from academia and industry to share their recent advances in this promising area.” Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) Computer Society. Offered online. https://intellisky.org/workshops/AIMG2025/workshop_AIMG2025.html or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

December 9, 2025 Microsoft Dynamics 365 Virtual Training Day: Modernize Service. “Learn how to transform your customer service experiences using Dynamics 365 Contact Center, Dynamics 365 Customer Service, Dynamics 365 Field Service, and Microsoft 365 Copilot for Service. Discover how these generative AI-powered solutions empower your service teams to work smarter, deliver more personalized and engaging customer experiences, and boost operational efficiency.” Organized by Microsoft and held on different dates and time zones to accommodate users worldwide. To be held free online. <https://www.microsoft.com/en-ca/events/category/microsoft-virtual-training-days?filters=delivery-language%3Aenglish&page=6&scenario=mvtvd> or <https://msevents.microsoft.com/event?id=4013261496>

December 9, 2025 Data and Analytics Fundamentals. “In today’s data-driven world, understanding data and analytics is essential. Master the basics of data and analytics in this entertaining and fast-paced three-hour training course, designed to get you up to speed quickly and efficiently. This course covers the core knowledge you need to get started, from fundamental concepts to practical applications.” Organized by O’Reilly Media Inc. based in Sebastopol, California, USA. This course is offered at different times throughout the year and online. <https://www.oreilly.com/live-events/?page=2> or <https://www.oreilly.com/live-events/data-and-analytics-fundamentals/0642572012993/0642572257002/>

December 9-10, 2025 Scientific, Technical and Medical (STM, Academic Publishing) Innovation and Integrity Days: Building Tomorrow’s Research Integrity Framework. Join us in London for STM’s Innovation & Integrity Days (formerly known as STM Week) where we will explore the breakthroughs that are transforming scholarly communication — and delve deeply into the latest trends, approaches and innovations in research integrity. London, United Kingdom. <https://stm-assoc.org/events/> or <https://stm-assoc.org/events/stm-innovation-integrity-days-2025/>

December 9-10, 2025 Supervision in Advancement: Focused Strategies for Effective Leadership. “This workshop is designed to help advancement supervisors at all levels lead with greater clarity, intentionality, and purpose. Through practical frameworks, self-reflection tools, and advancement-specific scenarios, you’ll deepen your supervisory skills and explore how effective internal leadership directly strengthens donor and constituent engagement.” Organized by Academic Impressions, Greenwood Village, Colorado, USA. To be held in Houston, Texas, USA.

<https://www.academicimpressions.com/trainings/> or <https://www.academicimpressions.com/leading-development-officers/>

December 9-10, 2025 Sight Tech Global: Shaping New Technologies to Create a More Accessible World for People with Vision Loss. "Sight Tech Global is the first global, virtual conference dedicated to fostering discussion among technology pioneers on how rapid advances in AI and related technologies will fundamentally alter the landscape of assistive technology and accessibility." Sight Tech Global is owned by the Vista Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired based in Palo Alto, California, USA. To be held free online. <https://sighttechglobal.com/> or <https://www.accessibilityassociation.org/s/events>

December 9-11, 2025 Mentoring and Coaching in Publishing: How to Get the Most Out of It. "This course equips participants with crucial practical knowledge and skills essential for effective mentoring and coaching within the scholarly publishing industry. You will learn how to streamline the processes of setting goals, providing and receiving feedback, and defining areas of expertise. The content integrates theoretical insights with practical exchange, ensuring that the tools and techniques covered are beneficial not only for mentoring but also for enhancing managerial skills." Organized by the Association of Learned and Professional Society Publishers (ALPSP, United Kingdom). December 10, 2025 Technology, Artificial Intelligence and Learning: A Dangerous Triumvirate. “Unfortunately, data has long revealed that the adoption of these tools both within and beyond the classroom most often leads to decreased relationships, increased stress, and decreased learning. It is for this reason that Sweden has recently banned all digital technology from schools outside of dedicated computer labs (and Finland is hot on their heels!) Dive into the question of ‘why’ – why is digital technology so often detrimental to learning and what are the mechanisms driving negative effects? With a deeper understanding of why these tools so often disappoint, we will be better poised to meaningfully consider when and how (if ever) we choose to employ tech and AI to supplement the learning process.” Organized by Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS) headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, USA. This event will be held online. <https://www.isacs.org/professionallearning/workshops-webinars> or <https://www.isacs.org/professionallearning/workshops-webinars/12-10-25>

December 12-14, 2025 International Symposium on Information and Communication Technology (SOICT), 14th. “SOICT 2025 is an international symposium covering significant research areas that include AI Foundations and Big Data, Networking and Communication Technologies, Multimedia Processing, Software Engineering, AI Applications, Generative AI, Applied Operations Research and Optimization, Recent Advances in Cyber Security... The symposium aims to provide an academic forum for researchers and graduate students to share their latest research findings and identify future computer science challenges. The symposium will include tutorials and keynotes given by world-class speakers.” Nha Trang City, Vietnam. <https://soict.org/>

December 12-14, 2025 Foreign Language Teaching (FLT) Conference: International Conference on Advanced Research in Education, 9th. Cambridge, United Kingdom. <https://www.educationconf.org/foreign-language-teaching-conference/>

December 12-14, 2025 San Diego and Imperial Service Center Council (SCC) Fall Leadership Conference: Educate, Advocate, Elevate. The conference will cover such topics as the state of women’s rights in America, demystifying artificial intelligence, creating a winning communication strategy, working with administration, fight for public school funding, organizing through technology, retirement decisions, etc. To be held at the Renaissance Palm Springs, California, USA. <https://www.cta.org/conferences> or <https://www.cta.org/event/2025-sdiflc>

December 12-17, 2025 SANS Cyber Defense Initiative. 40 courses offered. “Dive into an exhilarating week of intensive, top-tier training designed to sharpen your skills, whether you’re just starting out or advancing your expertise. Engage directly with leading minds in the field through hands-on labs and real-world techniques, and gain insights that only face-to-face interactions can offer.” Organized by the SANS Institute based in North Bethesda, Maryland, USA with offices worldwide. Similar events offered on different dates, online and in-person in the Americas, Asia-Pacific, Europe and the Middle East. This session will be held online and in Washington, D.C., USA. <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events?page=2> or <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events/cyber-defense-initiative-2025>

December 13, 2025 Math Myth Busters and the Science of Math. “This webinar explores the prevalent myths about math instruction and intervention that have hindered the application of evidence-based math practices in schools. We will examine several common misconceptions and contrast them with the latest research and the best available evidence. Topics will include timed tasks and tests, explicit instruction, the standard algorithm, growth mindset, productive struggle, and more. Participants will leave with a clear set of key components essential for designing effective mathematics instruction and intervention programs.” Presented by Learning and the Brain based in New Canaan, Connecticut, USA. To be held online. <https://www.learningandthebrain.com/online-seminars> or <https://www.learningandthebrain.com/conference-575/math-myth-busters-the-science-of-math>

December 13-16, 2025 Asian Technology Conference in Mathematics (ATCM): Reaching New Heights in Mathematics, Science and Education through Technology, 30th. Hosted by Ateneo de Manila University, Quezon City, Philippines. <https://www.ams.org/meetings/calendar/mathcal> or <https://atcm.mathandtech.org/>

December 14-17, 2025 International Conference on Information Systems (ICIS): Achieving Digital Integration in the Age of AI. “The rapid advancement of artificial intelligence (AI) presents both opportunities and challenges for organizations striving for seamless digital integration. ICIS 2025, themed ‘Achieving Digital Integration in the Age of AI,’ invites scholars and practitioners to explore how AI can unify diverse digital systems, enhance interoperability, and drive innovation across industries, transforming the way we work, connect, and innovate.” Organized by the Association for Information Systems. To be held in Nashville, Tennessee, USA. <https://aisnet.org/page/ICISPage> or <https://icis2025.aisconferences.org/>

October 15, 2025 Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Conference. “Dive deep into the wealth of EDI challenges and solutions... Learn from leading professionals in the field... Connect with like-minded individuals passionate about EDI.” Organized by the Royal College of Nursing (RCN, UK). Cavendish Square, Marylebone, London, United Kingdom. <https://www.rcn.org.uk/news-and-events/events/equity-diversity-and-inclusion-conference> or <https://www.rcn.org.uk/news-and-events/events#s=8&c=6&q=&r=UK%20wide&t=&p=&a=tabNational&sr=0>

December 15, 2025 Next Steps for Quantum Technologies in the UK: Regulation, Policy and Growth. “To discuss the Government’s Industrial Strategy and Digital and Technologies Sector Plan, and the way these build on and interact with the National Quantum Strategy and the five National Quantum Missions. Attendees will consider future steps for implementation, including issues around funding, the balance between public and private investment, maintaining capability in the context of overseas acquisitions, and the role of domestic and international partnerships”. Organized by the Westminster Forum Projects, Bracknell, Berkshire, United Kingdom. December 15, 2025 Step into Quality. “It’s a place to come together, explore practice through a quality lens, and engage in meaningful dialogue with peers who share a commitment to high standards and student success.” Organized by the Quality Assurance Agency (AAQ) for Higher Education based in Gloucester, United Kingdom. To be presented online. <https://www.qaa.ac.uk/news-events/events/2> or <https://events.qaa.ac.uk/event/fbd2367a-d809-44a7-82ec-fc729556f8db/summary>

December 15, 2025 Promoting Human x AI Partnerships for Deeper Student Engagement in the Classroom. “Rather than seeing it as a quick fix or an extra task, we’ll consider how AI can become a genuine teaching partner that helps us model curiosity and courage, conduct meaningful dialogue, and create space for deeper learning. We'll talk about ways to use AI tools to reduce busywork, lower cognitive overload, and boost creativity for instructors and students." "Learning Outcomes:

- Explore new ways to partner with AI tools that make online courses more engaging and human-centered.
- Encourage authentic student dialogue and curiosity by using AI to support reflection and collaboration.
- Apply simple strategies to prevent overload by using AI to streamline tasks, leaving more time and energy for connection, creativity, and meaningful learning."

Organized by EDUCAUSE which "is a nonprofit association whose mission is to lead the way, advancing the strategic use of technology and data to further the promise of higher education." December 15-18, 2025 Quantitative Research and Evaluation. "In this introductory course, we will explore various quantitative methods including quasi-experimental and experimental designs, introduce some of the analytic techniques used in these designs, highlight issues related to the use of measurement (such as surveys) and databases, and present multiple examples of how this knowledge can be used in the real-world." Organized by EnCompass, a consulting company that offers "customized solutions for leadership, capacity strengthening, technical assistance, and monitoring and evaluation" to clients in more than 70 countries. EnCompass is based in Silver Spring, Maryland, USA. To be held online via Zoom. <https://encompassworld.com/elc/elc-course-schedule-2025/> or <https://encompassworld.com/quantitative-research-and-evaluation-methods-2025/>

December 15-19, 2025 International Conference on Metadata and Semantics Research, 19th. The event focuses on "open access repositories and digital libraries, cultural informatics, digital humanities, e-learning applications, search engine optimization and information retrieval, research information systems and infrastructures, e-science and e-social science applications, agriculture, food and environment, bio-health and medical information systems". Thessaloniki, Greece. <http://www.mtsr-conf.org/> or <https://www.mtsr-conf.org/home>

December 15-19, 2025 ACM/IEEE Joint Conference on Digital Libraries (JCDL): "Is a premier international forum focused on research and practice in digital libraries, bridging technical, practical, and social dimensions. JCDL brings together researchers and practitioners from computer science, information science, librarianship, archival and museum studies, and diverse domains including technology, medicine, social sciences, law, and the humanities. As the digital landscape evolves, JCDL is increasingly engaging with emerging technologies, such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, and large language models, particularly in the context of information organization, discovery, accessibility, and preservation." Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Previously held online and at the University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China. In 2025, this event will be held online. <https://2025.jcdl.org/> or <https://www.computer.org/conferences/calendar?queryState=%7B%7D>

December 15-19, 2025 OpenAIRE Open Science Train the Trainer Bootcamp, 8th. The "train-the-trainer bootcamps aim at empowering trainers with the knowledge and the know-hows of Open Science so they can pass it onto the researchers and students themselves, and ultimately help create a more open, transparent and accessible research ecosystem." Who should participate? "Librarians, data stewards, research support staff or any other professional stakeholders who are planning to deliver Open Science training to researchers, research support staff and/or students." Organized by OpenAIRE, "OpenAIRE AMKE is a non-profit (European) organization with a mission to promote open scholarship and improve discoverability, accessibility, shareability, reusability, reproducibility, and monitoring of data-driven research results, globally.” To be offered online based on Central European Time (CET).

February 25-27, 2026 Ethnography in Risky Settings. “This workshop examines the ethical and political demands of ethnography in risky settings, where danger and uncertainty often push work beyond procedural ethics. Building on ethnography’s pursuit of cultural intimacy and thick description, we treat accuracy, authenticity, and truthfulness as contested criteria and trace how realism vs. fiction, visibility and form, intensified image circulation, and tightening border regimes reshape practice. Through discussion, case analyses, and structured debates, participants explore informed consent, participation, “do no harm,” and authorship. We also consider alternative publication modalities and reflect on researchers’ multiple roles and the ethical stakes of long-term engagement in contexts of risk and vulnerability.” Organized by Instats Holding, United Kingdom, <https://instats.org/>, which specializes on “Research Without Limits”. To be offered online. <https://instats.org/results?nav=Livestream&view=Seminars> or <https://instats.org/seminar/ethnography-in-risky-settings>

March 11-13, 2026. European League of Institutes of the Arts (ELIA) Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity (EDI) Community Meeting: Accountability as Cultural Practice. “Higher arts education is celebrated as a space of creative experimentation, critical thinking, and transformation. Yet behind our institutions’ walls, deeply rooted hierarchies are at play, between students and educators, administrators and leadership, dominant and marginalised identities. These layered power structures shape how inclusion is practiced—or resisted in the art school. But who is accountable for what? “Together we ask:

- How do we show up in our roles within higher arts education?
- How do we name and understand the power dynamics we operate within?
- How can accountability become a generative force for equity and social justice, rather than a mechanism of control or avoidance?

Co-funded by the European Union. Hosted by Escola Superior de Música de Catalunya (ESMUC), Barcelona, Spain. <https://elia-artschools.org/page/EDICommunityMeeting2026>

March 19-21, 2026 Society for Photographic Education National Conference. “At its core, communication revolves around connection—a mutual space for exchanging meaningful and relevant information. As photographers, we can use images to challenge assumptions, dismantle barriers, and spark meaningful conversations. In today’s rapidly changing world, social, academic, and cultural systems are being reshaped at a pace that often leaves little room for reflection or dialogue. These shifts demand new approaches and open exchanges considering individual and collective experiences. Photography provides a powerful platform for these exchanges. By capturing and sharing stories through images, we create opportunities to engage with others, foster understanding, and address the most pressing issues of our time.” Courtland Grand Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia, USA. <https://www.spenational.org/conferences/2026-spe-annual-conference/overview/announcements>

March 19-21, 2026 Network for Vocation in Undergraduate Education (NetVUE) Conference: Vocation – An Itinerary of Hope for Higher Education. “The landscape of higher education is currently marked by a great deal of chaos, uncertainty, and a growing sense of disillusionment—even among the sector’s most dedicated advocates. National narratives question the value of a college education; government officials seek to restrict the work of educators through financial, legal, and political channels; and everything is taking place against the background of large-scale world-historical events—war and civil unrest, economic fragility, climate change, political polarization, and technological juggernauts. In such circumstances, where is wisdom to be found? How can we build a bulwark against despair, in the midst of such difficulties and when all signs point to ever-worsening conditions? What might provide us with some intimations of hope?” Organized by the Council of Independent Colleges. Sheraton Kansas City Hotel at Crown Center, Kansas City, Missouri, USA. <https://cic.edu/events/> or <https://cic.edu/event/2026-netvue-conference/>

April 19-22, 2026 National Association for Research in Science Teaching (NARST) Annual International Conference: Joyful Transgressions and Radical Imagination in Science Education, 99th annual. “What could science teaching, learning and research look like in our wildest dreams? What could science teachers, learners, communities, and researchers be saying, thinking, doing, and feeling? What could be the priorities of science education? Urgent times calls for radical actions and opportunities to collectively imagine different worlds and plot futures where we all can flourish... This conference theme invites us to share the ways that we can transgress canonical boundaries in science education and expand dialogues on strategies for disrupting structures that sustain inequities, and in the spirit of bell hooks, “[envision]

new, alternative, oppositional aesthetic acts that both challenge and transcend [given] frameworks and limitations.” NARST is based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA. The event will be held at the Sheraton Grand Seattle, Seattle, Washington, D.C., USA. <https://narst.org/conferences/2026-annual-conference>

April 20-23, 2026 The Association of University Directors of Estates (AUDE) Annual Conference. AUDE “promotes excellence in the strategic planning, management, operation and development of Higher Education estates and facilities.” “The pressure on the AUDE community as estates leaders does not lessen. The need to run to keep up with emerging themes and changing technologies is clearer than ever. AI, the digital and physical integration of our campuses and climate change response are just some of the immense issues we face. And we do so against a background of real financial strain. It can only be wise for us as an estates community to look ‘straight in the eye’ at the realities of Higher Education in the UK today. Mergers, efficiency drives and cost savings, maintenance backlogs and the drastic paring back of capital projects, a drop off in international student numbers, an estate which in many universities is inefficiently used: we know the challenges we face and know we are best-placed to come up with answers together. What can we learn as a whole team during our time in Leeds...? University of Leeds, Woodhouse Lane, Leeds, United Kingdom. <https://www.aude.ac.uk/events/annual-conference/>

April 20-23, 2026 EDUCAUSE Managers Institute. “Step into the all-new EDUCAUSE Managers Institute, designed specifically for higher education managers with 3–5 years of experience. May 6-8, 2026 Nordic Conference on Adult Education and Learning (NAEL): What’s the purpose of adult education and lifelong learning in the times of crises? 11th biennial. “Adult education has traditionally focused on providing equal opportunities of education and learning for all, especially in the Nordic countries. Education has been considered as a public good, valuable in itself, a firm foundation for a democratic society and a source of opportunities for meaningful work. In today’s world we are facing multiple crises such as climate change, digital disruption/AI, disinformation, social polarization and involuntary migration. In these circumstances adult education and adult education research become more important than ever in addressing the aforementioned global challenges. Research based knowledge forms a solid basis for tackling these threats. Adult education and lifelong learning are crucial in educating citizens in facing these multiple challenges...(There is) an urgent need to rethink the purpose of adult education and lifelong learning during times of crises and find ways of re-articulating its social and economic role. Organised by the Finnish Society for Research on Adult Education. Hosted by the University of Turku, Turku, Finland. <https://liu.se/en/research/nael/next-conference> or <https://nordicadulthoodeducation26.fi/>

May 6-8, 2026 International Conference on Networked Learning, 15th biennial. Provides “an opportunity to participate in a forum for the critical examination and analysis of research in networked learning – particularly in higher education and lifelong learning. Networked learning has become a broader area of inquiry over the years, bringing together research in education and organisations spanning formal, informal, and technology-enhanced learning settings...The focus of the conference is research and practice that address relational and interactional aspects of learning and development with an emphasis on dialogical learning, collaborative and cooperative learning and learning in social networks.” Brussels, Belgium. <http://www.networkedlearning.aau.dk/> or <https://www.networkedlearning.aau.dk/>

May 6-8, 2026 LIBER Architecture Group (LAG) Seminar, biennial. “Brings together librarians involved in building projects - focusing on concepts and planning processes. Every two years, LAG organises a conference to exchange knowledge and experience between librarians and architects across Europe, aiming to raise awareness of emerging projects and trends.” LIBER is the Association of European Research Libraries. Technological University Dublin, Dublin, Ireland. <https://libereurope.eu/event/lag-seminar-2026-technological-university-dublin-dublin-ireland/>

May 8, 2026 Teaching Primary Geography through Enquiry. "This course introduces you to geographical enquiry as a way of stimulating curiosity and fascination in primary pupils." "Key learning aims:

- To understand the procedure of geographical enquiry, how to plan for different elements of it and the importance of supporting pupils to master the process.
- To become more familiar with key geographical concepts and how to develop these through enquiry.
- To learn how to assess a unit of enquiry."

Organized by the Geographical Association, based in Sheffield, United Kingdom. This event will be held online. <https://portal.geography.org.uk/event/listor> or <https://portal.geography.org.uk/event/view/E000183>

May 8-10, 2026 IEEE Conference on Artificial Intelligence (CAI). “An emphasis on the applications of AI and key AI verticals that impact industrial technology applications and innovations. You will learn about new research and breakthroughs in the industry, gain insight into new start-ups and leading AI companies, grow your network, and get inspired by the brightest minds working in the multi-faceted fields.” Sponsored by Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). To be held at the Granada Conference Centre, Granada, Spain. <https://www.ieeesmc.org/cai-2026/about-the-ieee-cai-2026/>

May 10-13, 2026 Canadian Conference on Research Administration. “With over 1,000 members, our professional organization's strength is in its diversity and comprehensive approach to research administration. CARA provides a critical interface between all stakeholders in the management of the research enterprise.” Organized by the Canadian Association of Research Administrators (CARA). To be held in Richmond, British Columbia, Canada. <https://www.cara-acaar.ca/> or <https://cara-acaar.ca/ccra-national>

May 10-16, 2026 International Computer Music Conference (ICMC): Innovation, Translation, Participation, 51st. Organized by the Ligeti Center. To be held online and in Hamburg, Germany. <https://ligeti-zentrum.de/icmc-2026/> or <https://conferences.smcnetwork.org/>

May 11-12, 2026 Gartner IT Infrastructure, Operations and Cloud Strategies Conference: Deliver Today, Transform Tomorrow. “In a tech-driven world, seamless operations are key to meeting future goals. AI transforms real-time, complicating cost and value. Lead your team to success by addressing challenges. Explore our tracks all developed with this theme in mind.” Gartner is headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, USA. This event will be held in Sydney, Australia. <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/calendar> or <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/apac/infrastructure-operations-cloud-australia>

May 11-13, 2026 European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD) Marcom, External and Alumni Relations Conference. “Over three days, the event dives into business schools’ challenges and offers unmissable insights into leveraging trends and tools to transform communication strategies.” EFMD has offices in Belgium, USA, Hong Kong China, Switzerland, and the Czech Republic. May 11-13, 2026 International Consultants for Education and Fairs (ICEF) Spanish Education, 5th. “It connects education providers in Spanish speaking countries with high-quality, ICEF-screened student recruitment agents from around the world. With Spanish the official language in 20 different countries, an increasing number of international students are actively pursuing a range of opportunities, either in Spain or in a Spanish speaking country, including short and long-term studies, cultural immersion, and vocational programmes.” Madrid, Spain. <https://www.icef.com/events/> or <https://www.icef.com/events/icef-spanish-education/>

May 11-13, 2026 Gartner Data and Analytics. Gartner, headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, USA, has 2,500 research and advisory experts who “deliver actionable, objective insight to executives and their teams” in 85 countries. This event will be held in London, United Kingdom. <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/calendar> or <https://www.gartner.com/en/conferences/emea/data-analytics-uk>

May 11-14, 2026 Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA) National Conference, biennial. “In 2026, we’re taking a fresh approach—there will be no single overarching theme for the conference. Instead, we’re keeping the program open to allow for a wider, richer exploration of the issues, ideas, and innovations shaping our profession. The conference will nonetheless spotlight the many ways the library and information sector continues to create positive impact—by connecting communities, supporting lifelong learning, advancing digital inclusion, fostering innovation, and more.” Rosehill Gardens, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. <https://www.alia.org.au/EventDetail?EventKey=NATCONF26> or <https://www.alia.org.au/events-and-training>

May 11-14, 2026 Web Summit Vancouver. (15,000+ attendees, 1,100+ startups, and 650+ investors) 'The Guardian called us "Glastonbury for geeks", the Atlantic "where the future goes to be born", and Inc. "the best technology conference on the planet".' Vancouver Convention Centre, Vancouver, British Columbia, USA. <https://vancouver.websummit.com/> or <https://websummitvancouver.bnetwork.com/>

May 11-14, 2026 Red Hat Summit. (6,600+ attendees from 71 countries and 1,800+ companies) Focuses on open-source technology for professionals "to learn, collaborate, and innovate on technologies from the datacenter and public cloud to the edge and beyond." "Join interactive sessions covering automation, edge computing, security, artificial intelligence and machine learning, the developer experience, and more." Red Hat has 100+ offices in 40+ countries. It is headquartered in Raleigh, North Carolina, USA. This event will be held in the Georgia World Congress Center, Atlanta, Georgia, USA. <https://www.redhat.com/en/summit>

May 11-15, 2026 European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD) Executive Academy: Europe Stream. "The programme takes an integrated approach to leadership, structured around three core modules:

- Leading oneself: The journey begins with introspection. Participants engage in self-assessment to uncover their personal leadership style, identify strengths, and discover areas for growth...
- Leading others: This module focuses on strategic leadership, team inspiration, and driving innovation...
- Leading programmes and institutions: The final module addresses the real-world challenges facing higher education today. Special emphasis is placed on digital transformation, societal impact, and the shifting dynamics of management education."

Prague, Czech Republic. <https://events.efmdglobal.org/> or <https://events.efmdglobal.org/events/2026-executive-academy-europe-stream/>

May 11-16, 2026 Conference on Language Resources and Evaluation, 15th biennial. "Will bring together researchers and practitioners in natural language processing, computational linguistics, speech and multimodality, with special attention to evaluation and the development of resources that support work in these areas." Organized by the ELRA Language Resources Association. To be held online and at the Palau de Congressos de Palma, Palma de Mallorca, Spain. <http://lrec-conf.org/> or <https://www.elra.info/elra-events/lrec/> or <https://lrec2026.info/>

May 11-16, 2026 SANS Cybersecurity West. Thirty-five courses offered. Organized by the SANS Institute based in North Bethesda, Maryland, USA with offices worldwide. Similar events offered on different dates, online and in-person in the Americas, Asia-Pacific, Europe and the Middle East. This event will be held online and at the Manchester Grand Hyatt, San Diego, California, USA. <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events?page=2> or <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events/security-west-2026>

May 11-17, 2026 Gamification Principles and Strategies. "Game environments encourage collaboration, inquiry-based learning, repetition, practice and control. In this workshop, you will use theories and principles from game design to develop learning environments that motivate and engage students in a creative way. By understanding elements of game design theory, you will begin to adopt and incorporate these elements which promote engagement into your online and blended courses. You will explore elements such as role-playing, point systems, competition, and collaboration." Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. "The OLC is a collaborative community of higher education leaders and innovators, dedicated to advancing quality digital teaching and learning experiences designed to reach and engage the modern learner – anyone, anywhere, anytime". This course is available at different times throughout the year. To be held online. <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/OLC/s/institute-schedule?id=a2n1U000000b3EC> or <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/s/community-event?id=a1YQI000003KhDZMAO>

May 11-29, 2026 Technology and Pedagogy in Virtual Exchange/Collaborative Online International Learning (VE/COIL). "Participants will:

- Align technology decisions with intercultural and collaborative learning outcomes.
- Evaluate accessibility, privacy, and infrastructure needs across contexts.
- Design inclusive online learning environments that balance synchronous and asynchronous collaboration.
- Create a sustainable technology-pedagogy alignment plan for VE/COIL delivery.”

Organized by the American Association of Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) based in Washington, D.C. To be held online. <https://www.aacu.org/event/vecoil-clinics-technology-pedagogy> or <https://www.aacu.org/initiatives/virtual-exchange-collaborative-online-international-learning>

May 11-June 7, 2026 Designing Course Quality Review Processes for Digital Learning (ID4). “This course is designed for instructional designers who are ready to lead the development and implementation of course quality review processes in digital learning environments. Participants will explore established course quality frameworks and through guided analysis and collaborative reflection, will compare and contrast these models to understand their structure, focus areas, and institutional applications. By the end of the course, each participant will create a customized course quality review rubric or scorecard tailored to their institutional context, along with a practical implementation plan.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. This course is available at different times throughout the year. To be held online. <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/OLC/s/institute-schedule?id=a2n1U000000b3EC> or <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/s/community-event?id=a1YQ00000364FJMAY>

May 11-July 3, 2026 ATD Master Instructional Designer Program. “The theory is essential; so is learning the practical process of applying instructional design principles to workplace solutions. During this eight-week asynchronous and live online cohort experience, you will learn practical skills as you explore real-world projects and benefit from peer collaboration via discussion boards. You will have conversations about instructional design topics to demonstrate your ability to design for the modern learners’ needs and explore deeper dives on content that is most applicable to your work.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA formerly the American Society for Training and Development, ASTD, with members from 120+ countries). Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. This session will be held online. <https://www.td.org/education/search-all-programs?offset=0> or https://www.td.org/education-courses/atd-master-instructional-designer-program?_queryID=690fabdd2e7d58f956cb45db9912f551&objectID=CERT_MISD&_position=14&index=atd_composable_prod_en-US_newest

May 13-15, 2026 European Society for Research on the Education of Adults (ESREA): Adult Learning and Education – Widening the Scope for Action, 15th. Topics include:

- How are recent political shifts connected to policies in adult learning and education?
- What are the consequences of a liberal master-trend that seems to come to an end
- In which ways is adult learning and education put under pressure because of neoliberal or antidemocratic narratives, ideologies, terminologies, propaganda or disinformation, and how are counternarratives and counteractivities established, e.g. networks and initiatives?

- What strategies are applied, e.g. by policy-makers, practitioners and researchers in Adult Learning and Education, to widen the scope for action in their field?
- Who is affected by right-wing populist strategies, who benefits from activities to widen the scope for action, e.g. for diversity, equity and inclusion?

To be held at the University of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany. <https://esrea.org/activities/conferences-seminars/> or <https://www.conferences.uni-hamburg.de/event/606/overview>

May 13-15, 2026 Canadian Association for University Continuing Education (CAUCE) Conference: Thriving in Change and Complexity: Rising to the Challenge in Continuing Education, 72nd. “The future brings rapid transformations and profound shifts in technology, the workforce, and social dynamics, presenting both opportunities and challenges for Continuing Education. In this ever-evolving landscape, we are—and will continue to be—committed to creating a meaningful and lasting impact in our communities while prioritizing the changing needs of our learners. This steadfast commitment grounds us, enabling us to innovate and adapt while staying true to what truly matters. Rising to this challenge demands a commitment to constant evolution and the ability to anticipate global trends while delivering transformative learning experiences.” Organized by CAUCE and Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. <https://cauce-aepuc.ca/conference/#top> or <https://cauce-aepuc.ca/conference/> or <https://cauce-aepuc.ca/index.php>

May 13-July 15, 2026 Developing an AI-Ready Workforce: Skills, Literacy, and Continuous Growth. “Artificial intelligence is not just another tool—it is transforming the very nature of work. As AI automates knowledge-based tasks, higher education leaders face a pressing challenge: how to prepare and lead a workforce that collaborates with, supervises, and is augmented by AI. This summit focuses on the workforce implications of AI adoption in higher education, equipping participants to lead the way AI reshapes daily operations, academic support, and administrative roles. Leaders must confront the realities of reskilling staff, redefining roles, and aligning culture and strategy to ensure people and AI systems work productively together.” Organized by EDUCAUSE (Boulder, Colorado, USA) “a nonprofit association whose mission is to advance higher education through the use of information technology.” May 13, virtual kick-off. June 2-4 in Arlington, Virginia, USA. July 15, virtual debrief. <https://events.educause.edu/event-finder> or <https://events.educause.edu/educause-summit/2026>

May 15, 2026 An Introduction to Computational Biology, Machine Learning and Artificial Intelligence. “Advances in biology such as the sequencing of the human genome and advances in imaging techniques have led to an explosion of data in the biosciences. One of the challenges with the analysis of such data is the volume, resolution and complexity of the data generated; plus, the quality of the data. These issues from a bioinformatics perspective are often typified by the criticism that different data sets do not yield consistent results. This would indicate that often such individual data sets have high levels of noise and thus do not have sufficient cases to achieve a sufficient statistical power. Thus, analysis of such data requires careful consideration, paying attention to the non-linearity of biological systems, the interaction of molecular entities in pathways, the fluidity of biological systems and the need for determination of consistent entities across multiple data sets. These challenges can be addressed through appropriate application of computational methods such as artificial intelligence and machine learning.” To be held online via Zoom. <https://www.rsb.org.uk/events.html> or <https://my.rsb.org.uk/item.php?eventid=4617>

May 15, 2026 Artificial Intelligence-Powered Business Analytics for Researchers. “This four-session workshop bridges the gap between established research methods and modern business-analytics techniques. It prepares you for a non-academic “Plan B” career path that is both intellectually stimulating and professionally rewarding. You’ll learn how familiar stats tools like regression, experimental design, and hypothesis testing map onto supervised and unsupervised machine learning, data mining, and predictive analytics workflows. The workshop focuses on practical implementation using R (or Python) and Tableau, with AI-supported coding to streamline routine tasks and provide a foundation for your expanding skill development. This will prepare you for diverse opportunities in both academia and industry.” Organized by Instats Holding, United Kingdom, <https://instats.org/>, which specializes on “Research Without Limits”. To be offered online.

May 15-16, 2026 Designing Training Videos Certificate. “The focus of this program is on the content side of production. Drawing on both video psychology and learning theory, the course takes you through a step-by-step planning process for structuring learner-centered videos. As part of the experience, you will design and prepare a video for production as well as produce a rough cut for viewing. You will explore how video works as a modality—applying techniques to keep viewers’ attention, ensuring your message is quick and easy to understand, and finding ways to structure content so it’s easy to remember. You will learn visual storytelling skills and how to write video scripts.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA formerly the American Society for Training and Development, ASTD, with members from 120+ countries). Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. May 18, 2026 Research Ethics. "Where clinical and laboratory research dictates the need to involve human subjects, clinical samples and/or patient-identifiable data, there is generally a need to seek and obtain a favourable opinion from a research ethics committee. This is particularly important for research involving drug trials, medical devices (including CE/UKCA labelled products), DNA analyses, exposure to radiation, etc. The process is not always intuitive, and neither is it always entirely straightforward, frequently leading to delays in obtaining necessary opinions before commencing practical research. Being aware of how ethics committees operate will prove helpful to potential applicants." Organized by the Royal Society of Biology (RSB, United Kingdom). Offered online via Zoom. <https://www.rsb.org.uk/index.php/events/upcoming-rsb-events> or <https://www.rsb.org.uk/events?event=researchethics> or <https://my.rsb.org.uk/item.php?eventid=4628>

May 28-30, 2026 Jean Piaget Society (JPS) Annual Meeting: Using Civic Science to Understand and Promote Healthy Human Development, 55th. "Civic science is an approach to scientific inquiry that highlights scientists' responsibility as citizens:

- to use science to assess and respond to problems faced by fellow citizens;
- to draw on the lived experience of citizens; and
- to engage citizens throughout the scientific process from design to dissemination."

Although scientists employ a method (i.e., the scientific method) well designed to yield valid logical and generalizable inferences based on reliable empirical evidence, the application of this method always occurs within a context of values and assumptions. Civic science recognizes this context dependency, is responsive to citizens perceived needs, supports citizens' autonomy and self-determination, and engages citizens in collective scientific collaboration; it is an inherently educational and democratic approach to science (Abbott et al., 2014; Árnason, 2012; Boyte, 2015)." June 8-11, 2026 Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) Conference on User Modeling, Adaption and Personalization (UMAP), 34th. “Bringing together research in AI and HCI to support effective human-AI collaboration via interactive systems that can model, adapt and personalize to their users.” “Focusing on “systems that adapt to individual users, to groups of users, and that collect, represent, and model user information”. Sponsored by ACM Special Interest Group on Human Computer Interaction (SIGCHI) and SIGWEB. To be held in Gothenburg, Sweden. <https://sigchi.org/conferences/upcoming/> or <https://sigchi.org/events/umap-2026/> or <https://www.um.org/umap2026/>

June 8-11, 2026 Association of Canadian Archivists (ACA) Conference: Critical Reflections, Envisioning the Future, 51st annual. Previously held at Richcraft Hall, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. In 2027, the conference will be held in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. In 2026, this event will be held online. <https://archivists.ca/> or <https://archivists.ca/Future-Conferences>

June 8-11, 2026 International Conference on Open Repositories (OR): Open to All? Repositories at the Intersection of People, Practice, and Emerging Technologies, 21st annual. Previously hosted by the University of Chicago in Hyde Park, Chicago, Illinois, USA. In 2026, this event will be held online. <https://or2026.openrepositories.org/> or <https://www.cni.org/event-calendar> or <https://www.eifl.net/events>

June 8-11, 2026 Web Summit Rio: Where the Global Tech Community Comes Together to Connect, Learn, and Shape the Future. (34,000+ participants and 1,400 startups) Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. <https://rio.websummit.com/>

June 8-12, 2026 European Association for Health Information and Libraries (EAHIL) Conference: Bridges to New Horizons: Innovations in Health Information and Medical Libraries. (2,000 participants) The purpose of the event is to “explore how emerging technologies, ethical practices, and collaborative partnerships are transforming medical libraries and health information systems worldwide.” Antalya, Türkiye. <http://eahil.eu/events/> or <https://eahil2026.tr/>

June 8-12, 2026 The Networking Conference (TNC): Research and Education Networking: Brighter Together, 42nd. (800 attendees from 70 countries) “Our community needs to embrace the idea of sisu to ensure our future as a community. With this action-orientated mindset, we need the courage to make difficult decisions about our response to world events, to ensure a sustainable future for our activities and to maintain the strong ecosystem we have built.” Hosted by “CSC – IT Center for Science builds digital solutions for data management, scientific computing, and education that help researchers, learners, and companies understand the world...CSC manages and operates Funet, a high-speed, cost effective academic and research network for Finnish higher education institutions, research organizations and other Funet members.” Helsinki Music Hall (Helsingin Musiikkitalo in Finnish), Helsinki, Finland. <https://tnc26.geant.org/>

June 8-12, 2026 EuroVis: The Eurographics Conference on Visualization - Where Words Fail, Visualization Speaks, 29th. “The exciting and vibrant field of Visualization is an ever-increasingly important research area due to the increasing popularity of data-driven decision making, explainable AI (XAI), to its wide range of applications. In general, our ability to collect, store, and archive data vastly exceeds our ability to derive useful knowledge and insight from it. This is a ubiquitous problem. Data visualization is key in gaining an understanding of large, complex data sets and processes by exploiting the human visual system. Data visualization leverages computer graphics, machine learning, and perception in order to provide a visual overview, explore, analyze, and present phenomena which are often difficult to understand.” All EuroVis conferences are facilitated by the Eurographics Working Group on Data Visualization and supported by the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE). Organized by the Visualization, Text Analytics, and Graphics (VisTAG) Group at the University of Nottingham, Nottingham, United Kingdom. <https://www.eurovis.org/> or <https://eurovis.org.uk/>

June 8-12, 2026 Design Research Society (DRS) Conference. (500+ international and national attendees) DRS and its members continue to create, maintain, and sustain “vital infrastructures, resources, and platforms that can support and grow design research as a discipline. Through member support, the DRS is able to maintain an open-access digital library, run initiatives that provide material support for design researchers at all career stages (including support for PhD students), provide a professional level of communication and community outreach (such as our popular newsletter), and more.” To be hosted by the University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, Scotland. <https://drs2026.thedrs.org/> or <https://www.designresearchsociety.org/cpages/home> or <https://www.designresearchsociety.org/events?list>

June 8-12, 2026 London Tech Week: Shape the Future – Uniting Global Tech to Drive Sustainable Innovation, 13th. (45,000+ attendees from 90 countries and 300+ speakers.) This event focuses on “how tech is transforming both business and society” by driving “transformation, diversity and innovation”. “London Tech Week is designed to bring together the innovators creating the technologies of the future, the investors who fund them, and the enterprise tech leaders who adopt them.” London Olympia, London, United Kingdom. <https://londontechweek.com/>

June 8-12, 2026 NASPA Certificate in Student Affairs Law and Policy. “This 23-hour, intensive residential certificate provides an opportunity for in-depth study to enhance student affairs professionals’ knowledge and understanding of law and policy.” Organized by NASPA (Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, USA). To be held in Clearwater Beach, Florida, USA. <https://www.naspa.org/events/page/2> or <https://www.naspa.org/events/2026-naspa-certificate-in-student-affairs-law-and-policy>

June 8-13, 2026 SANS Cybersecurity Chicago. Seventeen courses available. Organized by the SANS Institute based in North Bethesda, Maryland, USA with offices worldwide. Sans has provided training to employees of 159 country governments and 492 companies of the Fortune 500. This June event will be held online and at the Embassy Suites by Hilton Chicago Downtown Magnificent Mile, Chicago, Illinois, USA. <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events?page=6> or <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events/chicago-2026>

June 8-14, 2026 Assessment Strategies that Engage Students. “An important component of successful online teaching is developing effective assessment strategies and integrating multiple forms of assessment in order to provide students with diverse opportunities to evaluate their performance. In this workshop, you will discover a multitude of formative and summative assessment techniques used in online education, including both traditional and alternative assessments, and how to find an appropriate balance between the two.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. This course is available at different times throughout the year. To be held online. <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/OLC/s/institute-schedule?id=a2n1U000000b3EC> or <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/s/community-event?id=a1YQi000003OcNNMA0>

June 8-14, 2026 Online Labs and Clinical Experiences. “In this workshop, you’ll discover techniques and tools for designing engaging online learning experiences across disciplines like science, nursing, and more. You’ll learn how to integrate safe and effective labs and clinical experiences into your courses, ensuring students can master the essential skills and concepts for success. Additionally, you’ll explore strategies for writing clear procedures, step-by-step instructions, and selecting the right resources for your pre-lab activities.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. To be held online. <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/OLC/s/institute-schedule?id=a2n1U000000b3EC> or <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/s/community-event?id=a1YQi000003PdsTMAS>

June 8-14, 2026 Online Leadership: Sustaining Online Programs. “Implementing new online programs requires a strategic plan for sustaining the long-term growth of those programs. In this workshop, participants will explore a diverse set of financial models and approaches to budgeting to identify a structure that can work well for their institutions. Furthermore, participants will examine the lifecycle of an online program and ways to determine when to add, enhance, or discontinue a program.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. “The OLC is a collaborative community of higher education leaders and innovators, dedicated to advancing quality digital teaching and learning experiences designed to reach and engage the modern learner – anyone, anywhere, anytime”. To be held online. <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/OLC/s/institute-schedule?id=a2n1U000000b3EC> or <https://my.onlinelearningconsortium.org/s/community-event?id=a1YQ000003PhfxMAC>

June 8-12 and June 15-19, 2026 Digital Humanities Summer Institute (DHSI): A Place for Open Digital Scholarship. “DHSI is an ideal environment for discussing, learning, and building skills in the digital humanities.” “The Digital Humanities Summer Institute (DHSI) is an annual digital scholarship training institute that is organized for its community by the Centre de recherche interuniversitaire sur les humanités numériques (CRIHN) and takes place at the Université de Montréal campus. DHSI was previously run by the Electronic Textual Cultures Lab at the University of Victoria. You can visit the DHSI legacy website for more information on the past editions and the history of DHSI in its first 24 years: <https://onlineacademiccommunity.uvic.ca/dhsi/>.” In 2026, this event will be held at the Université de Montréal, Montréal, Quebec, Canada. <https://dhsi.org/course-offerings/> or <https://dhsi.org/program/> or <https://dhsi.org/>

June 8-19, 2026 International Assessment in Higher Education (AHE) Conference, 13th annual. Focuses on “improving assessment and feedback as a means of enhancing the student experience”. “This conference is an opportunity to debate concerns and increase understanding of assessment practice within and across academic disciplines. It will provide the opportunity to share innovations, evidence-based change, reflections on practice, research and evaluative studies with a particular focus on the voice of the practitioner, working to improve assessment in their programmes and institutions.” Manchester Marriott Hotel Piccadilly, London Road, Piccadilly, Manchester, United Kingdom. <https://ahenetwork.org/> or <https://ahenetwork.org/about-2/> or <https://ahenetwork.org/registration-accommodation-2/>

Offered by Harvard Graduate School of Education, Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA. Offered online. <https://www.gse.harvard.edu/professional-education/early-childhood-education-programs>

June 8-29, 2026 Middle School and High School Teacher Course: Sustainable Science – Contextualizing Chemistry through Safer Hand-Ons Labs. Organized by “Beyond Benign [which] develops and disseminates green chemistry and sustainable science educational resources that empower educators, students and the community-at-large to practice sustainability through chemistry.” To be held online. <https://www.beyondbenign.org/event/middle-school-and-high-school-teacher-course-sustainable-science-contextualizing-chemistry-through-safer-hand-on-labs/> or <https://www.beyondbenign.org/events/photo/2025-05-24/page/3/>

June 8-August 3, 2026 High School Teacher Course: Introducing Green Chemistry in the High School Classroom. Organized by “Beyond Benign [which] develops and disseminates green chemistry and sustainable science educational resources that empower educators, students and the community at large to practice sustainability through chemistry.” To be held online. <https://www.beyondbenign.org/event/high-school-teacher-course-introducing-green-chemistry-in-the-high-school-classroom/> or <https://www.beyondbenign.org/events/photo/2025-05-24/page/4/>

June 8-August 3, 2026 Advanced Green Chemistry: Connections to Our World. “In this course, you’ll dive into toxicology for chemistry basics and investigate the pedagogy for effective guidance of student-based research projects and inquiry-based projects.” Organized by Beyond Benign based in Wilmington, Massachusetts, USA. To be held online. <https://www.beyondbenign.org/event/advanced-green-chemistry-connections-to-our-world-3/> or <https://www.beyondbenign.org/events/photo/2025-05-24/page/4/>

June 9, 2026 Association of Colleges (AoC, UK) Governors’ Summit. “The Governors’ Summit brings together all college governors for a high-energy look at what great governance looks like.” To be offered online via Zoom. <https://www.aoc.co.uk/events-training/events> or <https://www.aoc.co.uk/events-training/events/aoc-gov-summit-2026>

June 9, 2026 Artificial Intelligence Governance and Responsible AI: Frameworks, Risks and Real-World Practices. “Data governance has become a critical success factor for organizations aiming to maximize the value of their data and analytics programs. With the rise of machine learning models and AI, governance now extends beyond traditional data management to ensure transparency, compliance, and security for AI-driven solutions.” Organized by Transforming Data With Intelligence (TDWI) Education, Woodland Hills, California, USA. To be held online. <https://tdwi.org/calendar/event-calendar.aspx>

June 9-10, 2026 Identity Week Europe: Global, Trusted, Visionary. (4,000+ attendees, 250+ speakers, and 250+ exhibitors) “For 19 years Identity Week Europe has been the unmissable event of the year, connecting thousands of Identity professionals from across finance, government, retail, ecommerce, healthcare, travel and social media. Identity Week Europe is the #1 exhibition to find solutions for secure credentials, biometrics, IAM, authentication, verification, border control, fraud, and more.” RAI Exhibition Centre, Amsterdam, The Netherlands. <https://www.terrapinn.com/exhibition/identity-week/index.stm>

June 9-10, 2026 Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education (AALHE) Conference: Assessment in Action – Real Work, Real Community, 17th annual. (400+ attendees) AALHE's mission: “Is to develop and support a community of educators and inform assessment practices in higher education to foster and improve student learning and institutional quality.” AALHE is based in Wales, Wisconsin, USA. Conference previously held at the Westin-Alexandria Old Down, Alexandria, Virginia, USA. In 2026, this event will be held online. <https://www.aalhe.org/annual-conference> or <https://www.aalhe.org/future-conferences>

June 9-11, 2026 Big Thinking Summit: Inflection Point. “Will bring the humanities and social sciences (HSS) to the forefront. Together, we must draw on historical, linguistic, cultural, and practice-based perspectives to open new possibilities for a Canada at the crossroads. Questions of legitimacy — who produces knowledge, whose voices are amplified, and how authority is recognized — are pressing to the fore. As public trust in postsecondary institutions is tested, shifts in cross-sector partnerships must reshape how research connects with policy and community priorities. Innovations in teaching, inquiry, and knowledge sharing must redefine scholarship and how it circulates across all of society. Calling on academics, community partners, and policymakers from across Canada to forge new collaborations and tackle these critical questions at the Big Thinking Summit: Inflection Point.” Organized by the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences headquartered in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. This event will be held at the Edmonton Convention Centre, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. <https://www.federationhss.ca/en/big-thinking/big-thinking-summit-2026>

June 9-11, 2026 Hawaii STEM/STEAM and Education Conference, 15th annual. (STEM= Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics, STEAM = Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) “Promotes an academia well versed in the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, Math and Education which is a key portion of the public education agenda of the United States. The conference intends to stimulate competitiveness and our nation's future economic prosperity through encouraging and inspiring more of our best and brightest academics in the study of STEM/STEAM and Education fields.” Organized by Hawaii University International Conferences. June 9-11, 2026 Artificial Intelligence for Instructional Design Workshop. “In this interactive workshop, you'll explore the fundamentals of AI and discover its game-changing potential for instructional design. You'll dive into real-world use cases, practice the art of communicating with AI, and leverage AI tools to streamline content creation. You'll also learn how to harness AI for designing inclusive and equitable learning experiences while navigating the ethical considerations of responsible AI usage.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA formerly the American Society for Training and Development, ASTD, with members from 120+ countries). Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. This session will be held online. <https://www.td.org/education/search-all-programs?offset=0> or https://www.td.org/education-courses/ai-for-instructional-design-workshop?queryID=0eb612e318430b9d609b67ea205a82f1&objectID=WRK_AIID&position=36&index=atd_composable_prod_en-US_newest

June 9-12, 2026 Mental Health in Schools: Building Systems of Care. “Across the educational system, trauma and threats to mental health are creating a direct, immediate, and potentially overwhelming impact on youth and adults. To effectively address this crisis, school leaders need to be equipped to support the development of mental health and well-being across their school community... you will learn to identify structures and practices necessary to create comprehensive systems of care that foster healing and promote resilience. The program focuses on best practices in developing comprehensive school mental health systems that support promotion, prevention, and intervention strategies responsive to student, classroom, teacher, and system-level needs.” Offered and to be held in-person by the Harvard Graduate School of Education, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA. <https://www.gse.harvard.edu/professional-education/k-12-programs?page=%2C%2C1> or <https://www.gse.harvard.edu/professional-education/program/mental-health-schools-building-systems-care>

June 9-12, 2026 Management and Organizational Behaviour Teaching Society (MOBTS) Conference: Rooted in Core Values”! 53rd annual. The theme “invites us to pause, reflect, and re-center ourselves in what grounds our work as educators. Our core values sustain not only our classrooms but also our community of practice.” Presentations are likely to:

- “Share innovative teaching practices grounded in ethical reflection and real-world relevance.
- Explore how values shape our roles and guide our actions in our work, both in and out of the classroom.
- Foster empathy, inclusion, and authentic connection among students and faculty.
- Reflect on personal or institutional challenges while remaining guided by integrity and purpose.
- Highlight strategies for developing our students to be ethical and values-based professionals and leaders.”

June 9-14, 2026 European Association for Language Testing and Assessment (EALTA): Literacies across Different Stakeholder Groups, 22nd. “The role of language assessment literacy (LAL) of different stakeholders involved in the assessment process has been a central concept within the field of language testing and assessment. Definitions of LAL include stakeholders’ background knowledge of measurement, linguistic terms and concepts, and practical skills involving test analysis, development, implementation, and use (Fulcher, 2021) ...However, in recent years, our field has identified the need for a number of distinct literacies that different stakeholders need to participate meaningfully in assessment processes... The growing role of digital and technological literacies is reshaping assessment practices, while ethical, intercultural, and critical literacies highlight the social and political dimensions of testing. At the same time, disparities across stakeholder groups and educational systems underscore the need for inclusive, context-sensitive approaches.” Siena, Italy. <https://ealta-annual-conference.org/> or <https://uia.org/icco/search?page=10>

June 9-25, 2026 Virtual Training and Facilitation Certificate. “In this certificate program, you’ll gain practical techniques to select engaging learning methods, facilitate meaningful activities, and keep participants involved from start to finish in online courses. You’ll also develop skills and practice strategies for building rapport and creating genuine connections in real time in the virtual space, ensuring you are prepared to apply your new skills back on the job.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA formerly the American Society for Training and Development, ASTD). Offered on different dates online or in-person. This session will be held in Alexandria, Virginia, USA.

June 10, 2026 Cell Culture: The Basics. “The broad aims of the course are to:

- Provide the foundations of cell culture, why it is an important skill for research and how it is applied across bioscience and medical research.
- Introduce the equipment and techniques of cell culture.
- Demonstrate how to freeze and thaw cells.
- Provide practical application of passaging and counting cells in culture.
- Provide the dos and don'ts of aseptic technique.”

Presented by and to be held at the Department of Biology, University of York, Wentworth Way York, United Kingdom. <https://www.rsb.org.uk/events.html> or <https://my.rsb.org.uk/item.php?eventid=4682>

June 10, 2026 Aseptic Techniques: Learn Techniques to Work Safely with Microorganisms in a Laboratory. “The broad aims of the course are to:

- Provide the foundations of aseptic technique, why it is an important skill for research and how it is applied across bioscience and medical research.
- Introduce the equipment and techniques of microbiology.
- Provide practical application to sterilise equipment and inoculate cultures.
- Provide the dos and don'ts of aseptic technique.”

Organized by the Royal Society of Biology. Presented by and to be held at the Department of Biology, University of York, Wentworth Way York, United Kingdom. <https://www.rsb.org.uk/events.html> or <https://my.rsb.org.uk/item.php?eventid=4681>

June 10-11, 2026 Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) Festival of Work: Driving People with Purpose to Thrive. June 12-14, 2026 Japan Association for Language Teaching (JALT) Computer Assisted Language Learning Conference (CALL): Prevail or Fail? "JALTCALL 2026 invites educators, researchers, and technologists to explore how digital tools, pedagogical innovations, and AI are reshaping language teaching and learning in an age of rapid change and uncertainty. We welcome presentations that critically examine both successes and setbacks in technology-enhanced language education: projects that worked, those that didn't, and lessons learned in between. Topics may include experimental classroom applications, data-driven research, AI and VR integration, assessment and feedback innovations, teacher training, learner autonomy, or institutional implementation." Konan University, Nishinomiya, Japan. <https://jaltcall.org/jaltcall-2026/>

June 12-14, 2026 International Conference on Frontiers of Educational Technologies (ICFET), 12th. "The theme of ICFET 2026 will focus on emerging trends in educational technologies, with special emphasis on the integration of artificial intelligence, immersive learning environments, and data-driven approaches to education." "The knowledge economy has very great demands for high-quality talents, and that enables educating, especially higher education becomes one of the hot questions of the current society. To meet this challenge, the current education method of the world is shifting towards more efficiency and edutainment. The objective of ICFET is to present the latest research and results of scientists (professors, doctoral students, and post-doc scientists) related to Frontiers of Educational Technologies topics." Organized by the International Association of Computer Science and Information Technology. Tokyo, Japan. <http://www.icfet.org/>

June 12-14, 2026 International Conference on Artificial Intelligence, Big Data, and Algorithms (CAIBDA), 6th. Tracks include:

- "Fundamentals of artificial intelligence and intelligent systems
- Natural language processing and generative artificial intelligence
- Computer vision and visual intelligence
- Big data management, security and application
- Machine learning, data mining, and decision intelligence
- Algorithm optimization and theoretical basis

Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE). Tianjin, China.

June 13-17, 2026 ACM Designing Interactive Systems. "We seek to provoke fundamental reexaminations of what it means to design interactive systems by asking:

- To what extent does the notion of "interactivity" reinforce a dyadic model of human-system relations, potentially limiting our understanding of more distributed, entangled, or systemic forms of interaction?
- How do the things we design interact with broader sociocultural, political, economic, and planetary forces?
- What lies beyond "interaction" that should be made visible in our design processes?
- Given these interconnections, how should we redefine what is "interactive" in interactive systems? And how might such a redefinition help us better navigate their systemic impacts?"

(ACM = The Association for Computing Machinery) To be hosted by the Division of Industrial Design at the National University of Singapore, Singapore. <https://sigchi.org/conferences/upcoming/> or <https://imx.acm.org/2026/> or <https://dis.acm.org/2026/>

June 13-17, 2026 Canadian Engineering Education Association (CEEA) Annual Conference: Shaping the Future – Creativity and Innovation in Engineering Education. "(CEEA) – Association Canadienne de l'éducation en génie (ACÉG) is a membership driven organization; created by those interested in engineering and design education and working toward a common national goal to highlight and direct engineering education. Members consist primarily of engineering educators, students, educational institutions and companies/organizations having an active interest in supporting the objectives of the CEEA-ACÉG." Some of the topics to be covered at the conference include: sustainability, ethics, and emerging technologies. How can we prepare future engineers to innovate while adhering to ethical and social imperatives? What essential skills are needed in a rapidly changing world?" June 22-25, 2026 ACM Interaction Design and Children Conference, 25th. “We invite the community to reflect on how we may create a more sustainable future. Children of today will inherit an environment deeply affected by the current climate and political crises. Children’s rights everywhere are under threat, while the very measures advertised as protecting them when using technologies raise new spectres of censorship and may limit their access to information. What alternatives may we propose as designers and technologists, that balance concerns about protection and agency? How do we help imagine and bring about a future where technology supports inclusivity and sustainability? How do we incorporate these principles throughout the research process and what can we do better? How may we centre care and maintenance alongside innovation in our community and work?” (ACM = The Association for Computing Machinery) Brighton, United Kingdom. <https://sigchi.org/conferences/upcoming/> or <https://sigchi.org/events/idc-2026/>

"The 2026 conference will explore the evolving connections within and between Asian societies in an era marked by rapid change – geopolitical realignments, climate challenges, digital transformation, and shifting cultural identities. It encourages a rethinking of traditional boundaries – geographic, disciplinary, ideological – and promotes dialogue on how best to co-create inclusive, resilient, and innovative futures. We invite contributions that interrogate the concept of 'borders' – physical, cultural, intellectual – and explore how (and how much) societies are being reconnected and reshaped in the 21st century. Whether through the lens of migration, heritage, media, diplomacy, or digital innovation, this conference seeks to foster interdisciplinary dialogue and reimagine what regional connections means today." June 29-July 2, 2026 International Migration, Integration and Social Cohesion in Europe (IMISCOE) Annual Conference: Strengthening Migration Studies through Community Engagement, 23rd. "In a world of increasing polarisation, where migration is one of the most problematized issues, the role of migration scholars is not only to contribute to advancing knowledge about how migration works and how States as well as other actors develop new legal strategies and technologies to increase the bordering, repression, dehumanization, deaths and criminalisation of migrants and refugees. It is also important to reflect on how our inquiries can produce narratives, interventions and policies that can contribute to strengthening solidarities, inclusive pathways, life, human dignity and hope for a more equitable society." To be held online and in Lisbon, Portugal. <https://www.imiscoe.org/events> or <https://www.imiscoe.org/events/imiscoe-events/2418-23rd-imiscoe-annual-conference-2026>

June 29-July 3, 2026 European Conference on Computer-Supported Cooperative Work (ECSCW), 24th. Supported by the European Society for Socially Embedded Technologies (EUSSET). Presenters may include the following topics but they are not limited by the list:

- A new methodology for designing or examining CSCW technologies
- Insights from the implementation of an IT system supporting collaboration
- First experiences and insights from the use of a new system supporting collaboration
- A case study of collaborative technology in a domain not typically studied in CSCW research
- A discussion or unfolding of new CSCW theory"

Organized by the University of the Bundeswehr München. The event will be held in Munich, Germany.

June 29-July 3, 2026 International Conference on Computational Creativity (ICCC), 16th.
“Computational creativity is the art, science, philosophy and engineering of computational systems which, by taking on particular responsibilities, exhibit behaviours that unbiased observers would deem to be creative. As a field of research, this area is thriving, with progress in formalising what it means for software to be creative, along with many exciting and valuable applications of creative software in the sciences, the arts, literature, gaming and elsewhere.” “Computational Creativity (CC) is a field rooted in scientific disciplines such as Artificial Intelligence, Cognitive Science, Engineering, Design, Psychology, and Philosophy, each of which explores the potential for computers to be creative.” Organized by the Association for Computational Creativity. The event will be held in Coimbra, Portugal.

June 30-July 2, 2026 Teaching and Learning Conference. “All students attending or presenting at this conference will be entitled to a 50% discount on their registration fees.” Organized by AdvanceHE, based in London, United Kingdom, “that works with institutions and higher education across the world to improve higher education for staff, students and society”. The Wave, University of Sheffield, United Kingdom. <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/events?page=1> or <https://www.advance-he.ac.uk/programmes-events/calendar/teaching-and-learning-conference-2026>

June 30-July 2, 2026 The Association for the Study of Medical Education (ASME) Annual Scholarship Meeting: Beyond Boundaries – Innovation, Inclusion and Impact in Health Professions Education. “This year ASM2026 celebrates bold thinking and transformative action in health professions education. We invite educators, learners, and leaders to push past traditional limits, embracing innovation to meet evolving healthcare needs. Inclusion is central ensuring diverse voices shape learning environments and equitable opportunities flourish. Impact remains the ultimate goal: improving outcomes for patients, communities, and systems. By challenging the norms and fostering collaboration across disciplines, sectors, and borders, we can unlock new possibilities for teaching, learning, and practice. Together, we can reimagine education that is dynamic, responsive, and truly fit for the future of global health care.” Eastside Rooms, Birmingham, United Kingdom. <https://www.asme.org.uk/events/> or <https://www.asme.org.uk/events/asm2026/>

June 30-July 3, 2026 ACM SIGCHI Symposium on Engineering Interactive Computing Systems, 18th. “Devoted to engineering interactive computing systems and their user interfaces, addressing one or more software quality factors, such as usability, user experience, reliability, security, etc...EICS focuses on models, languages, notations, methods, techniques and tools that support designing, developing, validating and verifying interactive systems.” (SIGCHI = Special Interest Group on Computer-Human Interaction) To be held at the University of Patras, Patras, Greece. <https://sigchi.org/conferences/upcoming/> or <https://sigchi.org/events/eics-2026/> or <https://eics.acm.org/2026/>

June 30-July 9, 2026 Filming and Editing Training Videos Certificate. “You will actively practice creating professional quality film footage throughout this hands-on program—mastering how to balance quality and speed. Learn to frame and capture crisp footage, make it flow, and edit content into a polished training video that maximizes learner engagement. By using professional best practices and trusted techniques, your training videos will be clearer, smoother, and more refined. This program focuses on the process of creating and producing engaging training videos. If you are interested in designing instructional videos, consider enrolling in the Designing Training Videos Certificate. These two programs are complementary and, in combination, cover the complete process for developing all types of training videos.” Organized by the Association for Talent Development (ATD, USA formerly the American Society for Training and Development, ASTD, with members from 120+ countries). Offered on different dates online or in-person in cities such as New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Los Angeles, California, USA. This session will be held online. <https://www.td.org/education/search-all-programs?offset=0> or https://www.td.org/education-courses/filming-and-editing-training-videos-certificate?queryID=f03bbb9ae495bc590708602578d4a826&objectID=CERT_FETV&position=7&index=atd_composable_prod_en-US_newest

June ?, 2026 International Telecommunication Union (ITU) World Telecommunication Development Conference (WTDC), held every four years. “WTDC is a unique opportunity to develop innovative approaches and new models of collaboration for connectivity and digital solutions in this final Decade of Action to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals” Previously held June 6-16, 2022 in Kigali, Rwanda. <https://www.itu.int/en/ITU-D/Conferences/WTDC/WTDC21/Pages/default.aspx>

July 1-3, 2026 The Association of European Research Libraries (LIBER) Annual Conference, 55th. (400 attendees) Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU) Library, Trondheim, Norway. <https://libereurope.eu/events/> or <https://libereurope.eu/annual-conference-page/> or <https://liberconference.eu/>

July 1-3, 2026 International Conference on New Directions in the Humanities: Beyond Borders – The Role of the Humanities in Reimagining Communities, 24th. Those who attend have “a common interest in established traditions in the humanities while at the same time developing innovative practices and setting a renewed agenda for their future.” To be held online and at the Nova School of Social Sciences and Humanities, Lisbon, Portugal. <https://thehumanities.com/2026-conference>

July 1-3, 2026 International Conference on Publishing Studies: Beyond Borders – Democratizing Knowledge in a Polarized World. “Investigating publishing practices as distinctive modes of social knowledge production. We seek to build an epistemic community where we can make linkages across disciplinary, geographic, and cultural boundaries.” Organized by Information, Medium & Society – The Publishing Studies Research Network. To be held online and at the Nova School of Social Sciences and Humanities, Lisbon, Portugal. <https://informationmediumsociety.com/2026-conference>

July 3-4, 2026 QS Africa Forum. “The QS Africa Forum will foster transformative discussions to evolve higher education across Africa. With a growing young population, Africa stands at the forefront of transformation – can higher education on the continent manage increased demand?” Organized by QS Quacquarelli Symonds Ltd., a “leader in higher education performance and insights” based in London, UK. The event will be held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. <https://www.qs.com/conference/conference-calendar> or <https://www.qs.com/conferences/africa>

July 5-8, 2026 CAIS Foundations for School Leadership Program: Designing a Practice. “Recent Canadian Accredited Independent Schools (CAIS) research highlights the growing need for motivated, diverse, and expert leadership to support school improvement and innovation. With support from expert facilitators and the cohort experience, participants gain a deeper sense of their strengths and areas for growth, building both confidence and understanding of independent school leadership. The program provides aspiring leaders with knowledge of leadership competencies and actions, meeting them where they are in their careers and helping them to develop the skills necessary for effective school leadership.” Due to high demand Halifax Grammar School (Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada) and St. Michaels University School (Victoria, British Columbia, Canada) will each host a cohort. <https://www.cais.ca/professional-learning/li/foundations-for-school-leadership-program> or <https://www.cais.ca/professional-learning/li>

July 6-10, 2026 International History, Philosophy and Science Teaching (IHPST) Conference, 18th biennial. “Functions as a forum of academics, researchers, PhD students and teachers coming from a variety of disciplines: history of science, philosophy of science, sociology of science and science education.” Organized by the Institute of Education and the Faculty of Science at Lisbon University. Lisbon, Portugal. <https://ihpst.clubexpress.com/> or <http://ihpst.net/> or https://ihpst.clubexpress.com/content.aspx?page_id=22&club_id=360747&module_id=400512

July 6-10, 2026 Innovative Schools Summit Las Vegas. Also including the Innovative Teaching Strategies Conference, At-Risk Students Conference, School Climate and Culture Forum, School Discipline Conference, and Innovative School Leadership Forum. Organized by AccuTrain Corporation based in Virginia Beach, Virginia, USA. This event is offered at other times and locations throughout the year. This July event will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA. <https://innovativeschoolssummit.com/innovative-teaching-strategies-conference/> or <https://innovativeschoolssummit.com/> or <https://innovativeschoolssummit.com/vegas/>

July 6-11, 2026 SANS Cybersecurity London, UK. Ten courses available. Organized by the SANS Institute based in North Bethesda, Maryland, USA with offices worldwide. Sans has provided training to employees of 159 country governments and 492 companies of the Fortune 500. This July event will be held online and in London, United Kingdom. <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events?page=6> or <https://www.sans.org/cyber-security-training-events/london-july-2026>

July 6-August 2, 2026 Professional Foundations and Learning Trends. “Learning Objectives:

- Analyze the connections between learning theories, instructional theories, and instructional design models
- Assess your professional learning needs in the areas of instructional designer competencies and current learning trends
- Determine your learning needs utilizing networking, research, and collaboration
- Compare various instructional designs in terms of their ability to support deeper approaches to learning
- Design instruction that utilizes strategies to promote deeper approaches to learning in various contexts
- Analyze the uses of cognitivist, constructivist, and motivational learning and instructional theories
- Create instructional activities based on cognitivist, constructivist, and motivational learning and instructional theories
- Analyze the impact of participating in communities of practice in a specific instructional design practice
- Evaluate the use of communities of practice as an instructional design choice
- Discuss the strategies, benefits, and challenges for developing a community of practice at your institution.”

Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. This course is available at different times throughout the year. To be held online.

July 6-August 2, 2026 Project Management for Instructional Designers. “The instructional designer role encompasses more than course design, faculty training, and technology innovation. Many instructional designers juggle multiple projects at a time, contributing to key aspects of each project, and often managing more than just one. Project management competencies are essential for instructional designers to effectively contribute to project success and, even more imperatively, to provide leadership throughout the process. This course provides instructional design community members with an introduction to the lifecycle of a project, spanning project initiation to closing/evaluation, as well as key knowledge areas necessary to successfully achieve project outcomes within the context of a team.” Organized by the Online Learning Consortium (OLC) based in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. This course is available at different times throughout the year. To be held online.

July 7, 2026 Robotics for Good Youth Challenge Grand Finale. “The Robotics for Good Youth Challenge is the leading UN-based global robotics championship, inviting students aged 10 to 18 to develop AI and robotics-based solutions to tackle global challenges. This programme offers a unique entry point into STEM disciplines while fostering problem-solving and teamwork skills that are critical for the next generation of digital leaders. Organized by the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), participants design, build, and program robots to complete missions that address real-world issues. The competition promotes the use of free and open-source software and hardware, allowing unrestricted assembly and programming of the robots.” (STEM = science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) Organized by AI for Good initiated in 2017 by the United Nation’s International Telecommunication Union (ITU) in partnership with over 40 UN Sister Agencies. To be held online based on the time in Geneva, Switzerland. <https://aiforgood.itu.int/ai-events-calendar/> or <https://aiforgood.itu.int/event/robotics-for-good-youth-challenge-grand-finale-2026/>

July 7-9, 2026 International Council on Education for Teaching (ICET) World Assembly (WA), 66th. “Addressing the global uncertainty facing teaching as a profession in times of geopolitical, environmental, and social justice and technological challenges, WA 66 will convene a timely scholarly conversation about sustaining and reimagining the profession in these challenging times, and invites researchers from around the globe to convene for this purpose. WA 66 will animate research concerning:

- the democratic purposes of education and teaching;
- teacher and school leader recruitment and retention;
- governmental intervention in the content and substance of teacher ed and workload concerns;
- teacher knowledge in colonised contexts;
- resourcing for teacher professional learning; and
- teacher and school leader wellbeing.”

It aims to provide a space for sharing research and experiences for scholars at all career stages, and will enable shared dialogue and opportunities to meet and engage with colleagues from diverse contexts. The Australian Catholic University, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. <https://www.icet4u.org/> or https://www.icet4u.org/world_assembly_2026.php or https://www.memberleap.com/Calendar/moreinfo.php?org_id=ICET&eventid=51295

July 7-10, 2026 The Creativity Workshop. “Since 1993 The Creativity Conference has brought together people from all professions, ages, and nations. What conference participants all have in common is an interest in the creative process, a spirit of curiosity, and the desire to explore and harness the power of their imaginations.” “Learn How to Be More Creative in our Interactive, Experiential Creativity Workshop

- Learn practical techniques to ignite your creativity, imagination, and innovative thinking
- Get over creative blocks, writer’s block, and paralyzing self-criticism
- Find new sources of inspiration in everyday life
- Establish a 15 minute a day creativity practice to accomplish these goals.”

To be held in Florence, Italy. <http://www.creativityworkshop.com/conferences.html>

July 7-10, 2026 AI for Good Global Summit: Advancing Trustworthy AI for Sustainable Development. Organized by AI for Good initiated by the United Nation’s International Telecommunication Union (ITU).

To be held online and in Geneva, Switzerland. <https://aiforgood.itu.int/programme-ai-for-good/> or <https://aiforgood.itu.int/ai-events-calendar/> or <https://aiforgood.itu.int/summit26/>

July 7-10, 2026 International Conference on Artificial Intelligence in Medicine (AIME), 24th. “AIME 2025 will offer the unique opportunity for researchers and other healthcare and AI experts to present significant theoretical, methodological and applied results related to the application of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in medicine” and its future. Hosted by the University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

July 7-11, 2026 Computer-Assisted Language Instruction Consortium (CALICO) Conference: Language with a Good Heart – Nurturing Human Connections in CALL, 42nd(?). Possible thematic topics include, but are not limited to:

- Showing how human-centered CALL can be designed to prioritize empathy, ethical design & engagement, and interaction– between elders, educators, and learners with technology.
- Exploring how inclusive technologies and pedagogies can nurture meaningful interactions, celebrate indigenous and community knowledge, and foster cross-cultural collaboration.
- Highlighting the evolving relationship between language education, cultural knowledge, and technology, with a focus on indigenous and community-led perspectives alongside innovations in empathetic, ethical CALL design.
- Indigenous and Community Voices in CALL (community-led approaches, digital decolonization, and technologies supporting language preservation, revitalization, and documentation).
- Ethics and Equity in Language Technologies (exploring cultural, equitable access, and the role of CALL in bridging (or widening) the digital divide).

Organized by CALICO based at Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas. Hosted by the College of Arts and Science and the Interactive Language Resource Center at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, USA.

July 8-10, 2026 International Conference on Learning: Digital Literacy for Future Readiness, 33rd. Organized by the Learner Research Network which has “a common concern for learning in all its sites, formal and informal, and at all levels, from early childhood, to schools, colleges and universities, and adult, community and workplace education. We seek to build an epistemic community where we can make linkages across disciplinary, geographic, and cultural boundaries.” To be held online and at the University of Hong Kong, Pok Fu Lam, Hong Kong, China. <https://thelearner.com/2026-conference> or <https://thelearner.com/2025-conference>

July 9-10, 2026 Computing Conference, 14th. (Formerly, the Science and Information Conference) “This conference brings together scientists, scholars, researchers, industry leaders, and technology professionals from around the world to explore and shape the future of computing. The Computing Conference “focusses on technology trends, computing, artificial intelligence, machine vision, security, communication, ambient intelligence, and e-learning.” Clayton Hotel Chiswick, London, United Kingdom. <https://saiconference.com/Computing>

July 9-10, 2026 Managing Difficult Faculty and Staff. You will gain:

- “A proven, four-step model to engage, set expectations, address non-compliance, and protect your team dynamics.
- Time to practice addressing challenging behaviors you've identified.
- Insights from leaders on how to handle perceived barriers related to unions and tenure.
- An intervention plan to move forward with your difficult employee.”

Organized by Academic Impressions, Greenwood Village, Colorado, USA. To be held in Orlando, Florida, USA. <https://www.academicimpressions.com/trainings/> or <https://www.academicimpressions.com/managing-difficult-faculty/>

July 9-12, 2026 Society for the Advancement of Biology Education Research (SABER) Annual Conference. “The Microsoft CMT service was used for managing the peer-reviewing process for this conference. This service was provided for free by Microsoft and they bore all expenses, including costs for Azure cloud services as well as for software development and support.” STEM Building, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan. <https://saberbio.wildapricot.org/Annual-Meeting> or <https://saberbio.org/Annual-Meeting>

July 12-15, 2026 Pervasive Technologies Related to Assistive Environments (PETRA) Conference. The event “is a highly interdisciplinary conference that focuses on computational and engineering approaches to improve the quality of life and enhance human performance in a wide range of settings, in the workplace, at home, in public spaces, urban environments, and other... PETRA brings together very different types of technologies to also address important social and healthcare issues for sensitive populations, such as the elderly, persons suffering from chronic conditions such as Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, Cerebral Palsy, and other disabilities or traumas.” To be held in Hersonissos on the Island of Crete, Greece. <http://petrae.org/index.html> or <http://petrae.org/crete.html> or <https://petrae.org/index.html>

July 12-15, 2026 Presidential Vocation and Institutional Mission. “Program benefits:

- Gain clarity on your vocational calling.
- Explore the distinctiveness of various institutional missions.
- Engage with a supportive community of peers and experienced facilitators.
- Strengthen your candidacy for a presidency by aligning personal and institutional missions.
- Explore alignment between your calling and your spouse's/partner's calling.”

Organized by the Council of Independent Colleges headquartered in Washington, D.C., USA. To be held in Cape Rey, California, USA. <https://cic.edu/events/> or <https://cic.edu/opportunity/vocation-and-mission/>
